Youth of the Month

Youth of the Month students Modupe Karimi and Soliyana Belaye from Lakeview Centennial High School were recognized. Students read their essays and discussed their academic plans for the future.

The writing prompt for YOM this year is. "The COVID Pandemic drastically changed every aspect of our lives, in every way imaginable. reflecting on what you learned during this time about yourself, your community, and the world, explain how your perspectives on success, empathy, prioritizing, social inequalities, and leadership have been reshaped."

You Make A Difference

Byron Velasquez with GPD was recognized for his actions that saved the life of a citizen who had received a gunshot wound to his leg. Officer Velasquez administered a tourniquet and stabilized the victim until medical personnel arrived. After serving in the Marines, Officer Velasquez returned to Garland to serve the community he grew up in as a police officer.

Book of Golden Deeds

Patty Granville was recognized as The Book of Golden Deeds recipient for her forty-plus years promoting the Arts in the Garland community. Patty served as the Director of the Granville Performing Arts Center since 1982. In 2003, the city renamed it The Patty Granville Arts Center. In 2002 GISD named their high school theater awards in her honor.
