

Barefoot Beachcombers' early 2019 Schedule

Sorry, but it doesn't look likely we'll be swimming barefoot in Central Florida in either January or February.

However, on Monday, February 18th, while the Atlantic and Gulf are still firing up their tropical jets, we will visit our local Carney Island Recreation and Conservation Area on Lake Weir. We will gather at 10:30 am.

Carney Island Park's address is 13275 SE 115 Ave.
Ocklawaha, FL 32179, which is about 25 minutes NE of the Savannah Center in The Villages.

Carney Island is, in our opinion, one of the most scenic parks in Marion County

If you'd like, you can reserve lunch from Cody's (see below) and enjoy it under two elevated large pavilions or separate picnic tables overlooking lovely Lake Weir,

After lunch, we hope to surprise and delight you with entertainers on the beach.

Bring your chairs for a relaxing afternoon of doing "what we Villagers do best!"

Or you more active types may take a walk along one of their trails under majestic towering oaks along with these Thanksgiving escapees.

Just try not to take any Spanish moss home in your hair.

Your (great?) grandchildren will thank you for discovering this fun park!

Cost:

$7 per car admission will be paid out of the club treasury as our gift to you.

Collect your parking pass at the park's entrance but do not insert any money in the box.

Instead, we will count our cars and pay for the entire group via one check.

If you are attending, bringing your lunch and drink from home, and will be driving with friends, you do not need to respond to this invitation. We will just look forward to seeing you there.

Print and mail this page to us for receipt by Feb. 15th only if:
