A WARM WELCOME FOR ALL

Welcome to the Willette church of Christ, where you will find the Bible as our only rule for faith and practice. We seek to speak where the Bible speaks and to be silent where the Bible is silent. We want to call Bible things by Bible names and do Bible things in Bible ways.

Findings from Timothy

There are not many more fundamental doctrines than the resurrection. This morning I hope to show you that the resurrection is essential not only to an understanding of the Christian life, but to understand History, Eschatology (the doctrine of final things), and Theology in general. Resurrection is THE doctrine that sets Christianity apart from many other religions and world views. Let's study on it this morning.

Jesus did so much that the world itself could not hold all the books about Him (John 21:25). There are many great Old Testament Characters, but every story about Jesus is just golden. Tonight, we look at how Jesus went to a wedding and turned water into wine: John 2.

We are a Bible centered, mission minded, and family oriented church. Thank you for coming, and please return at every opportunity.

The Hatton Half: The Marvelous Monogenesis

When we read John 3:16, a prominent phrase that may stand out in our minds is “gave his only begotten son.” Often, upon reading this phrase, we would just glance at it and not really give anymore thought. However, it must be considered that something more significant lies within this phrasing. Let us now explore the main point that John wanted to make. Let us look at it more closely from the standpoint of the Greek. The word in the original language is μονογενῆ, which conveys the idea of Jesus’ sharing the same things with the Father. We must remember the writings of other biblical authors when considering this point. Paul stated on no uncertain terms that Jesus was the fullness of the Godhead bodily (Col. 2:9). When John discussed our Master, he described our Lord by using “the Word” (John 1:14). A similar sentiment is expressed insofar as the unique nature of Jesus is concerned. More specifically, Jesus is the only one who possesses the relationship He does with the Father. No person living this day may attest to having the same relationship that Jesus has with the Father. He is the only one who has been conceived miraculously in the virgin’s womb (Isa. 7:14; Mat. 1:18-25). He is also the only one who is able to plead our case. The only way a person can be a true advocate is if someone has been through a similar situation and knows what a particular situation is like. Luckily, our Master has lived a life on this earth, yet did so without sinning (Heb. 4:15). With that, He is able to be our advocate with the Father (1 John 2:2). It was Wayne Jackson that observed “Christ’s mission to earth was not to condemn; instead, it was to provide a way of redemptive rescue” (Jackson 146). He is the only one who could do it and He did it. The Father’s wrath was satisfied and the pathway was paved for redeeming all mankind (Isa. 53:11). Let us consider all these things and know the intimate relationship Jesus has!

Those attending: I think all the members by this time know the drill. If you are coming back for the first time, or visiting with us, then note that there are TWO morning services and that an evening Bible Study and Wednesday night Bible Study are live-streamed on our YouTube channel. You are welcome at our worship services, just keep in mind the precautions that have been put in place. Also note that if you have symptoms of the virus you need to please leave to get that checked out. Everyone is welcome at church, but the wisdom of testing for pathogens when symptoms show and quarantine until the results are known is clearly taught in Leviticus 13-17. (Tim)

Brother Odell: I was going to preach a different sermon this morning, but I just wasn’t able to bring myself to do it after reflecting on all those we have lost recently. However, I know Odell would want me to just preach a good one and let it go at that so once again that is what I will do. I did want to say that I believe that bro. Cherry experienced his greatest spiritual gains in fellowship with this congregation, and that is not just my opinion, but the view of others who have known him a long time. I believe Odell travelled all the way out here because he knew he could find at Willette the Shepherding and commitment that he was looking for.

Barnabas Boxes: As we come to church, don’t forget to check your mail boxes for cards, class materials for some of your children, and other goodies.

Wednesday night: Jonny Royal will be teaching the next Wednesday lesson on the home.

Tonight: The Bible story: Jesus at the wedding feast: John 2.

Verses to Ponder

Isaiah 53:4 - 9 <sup>4</sup> Surely He has borne our griefs And carried our sorrows; Yet we esteemed Him stricken, Smitten by God, and afflicted. <sup>5</sup> But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities; The chastisement for our peace was upon Him, And by His stripes we are healed. <sup>6</sup> All we like sheep have gone astray; We have turned, every one, to his own way; And the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. <sup>7</sup> He was oppressed and He was afflicted, Yet He opened not His mouth; He was led as a lamb to the slaughter, And as a sheep before its shearers is silent, So He opened not His mouth. <sup>8</sup> He was taken from prison and from judgment, And who will declare His generation? For He was cut off from the land of the living; For the transgressions of My people He was stricken. <sup>9</sup> And they made His grave with the wicked— But with the rich at His death...

Our Gratitude

We express our gratitude for those who came out or helped with food for the Cherry funeral in some way. This is a very trying time for the congregation and it is good to see those who do not grow weary in well-doing. Also a big thanks to those preparing the new classrooms and those working in Benevolence and with our recent honoring of the graduates.
