ITINERARY

Wednesday, May 4

Williamsburg, IA

Think “SPRING” when you board our motor coach for a Tulip Time getaway! Our lunch break will be en route. Upon arrival in the Amana Colonies we’ll handcraft an experience just for you with a local guide who brings the Amana story to life. Take a step back from today’s busy pace to relish in the comfort of locally crafted foods, furniture, art and more. The Colonies have something for everyone, offering a unique history and culture found nowhere else in the world. We will have an included family-style dinner at the Ox Yoke Inn, before departing to our hotel for our overnight stay.

Thursday, May 5

Altoona, IA

After breakfast we’ll depart to the “Netherlands” and become Dutch for a day in the blooming & charming village of Pella, Iowa where windmills, tulips, and excitement welcomes visitors to the colorful Tulip Festival. Pella is filled with the sights, tastes, and sounds reminiscent of Holland. Enjoy the Molengracht (Dutch Marketplace) for shopping and the special festivities of Tulip Time. From Reserved Seating, we’ll view the Volks Parade, featuring the street scrubbers, beautiful floats, the Royal Court, Dutch dancers and more! After departing Pella, “America’s Dutch Treasure”, we’ll have a short distance to the Prairie Meadows Casino & Hotel in Altoona, Iowa. The opportunity is yours for relaxation, enjoying the cuisine at the hotel’s restaurant, or visiting the adjacent casino if you feel lucky!

Bridges of Madison County

Friday, May 6

Home

Photo opportunities arise as our tour takes us to bridges that were featured in the movie and book versions of “The Bridges of Madison County”. Our day wouldn’t be complete without a visit to the John Wayne Birthplace and newly built museum before arriving at the Northside Café for an included lunch. Before departing for home, take time to enjoy the small town City Square surrounded with merchant shops, typical of a bygone era. That’s what “The Duke” would want you to do!
