

Tap9

With a wide variety of musical tastes and backgrounds ranging from blues, to country, to jazz and rock, the band "Tap 9" shows no limitations with their writing ability and style.

Based in Lacombe AB Canada, the band formed in 2010 with world class members who came together to explore their own original style self-described as modern day classic rock sometimes with a country twist.

The songs of "Tap 9" have lyrics of emotional and social conscience The combination of years of playing in studio and live gigs, brings a soul filled sound of truth to their songs.

The band's 1st song, Alberta Home was originally published spring of 2011. Since the release of the bands 1st full studio album in September 2012 Tap9's identity has become more defined. Leaning back on their country roots (It's hard not to have country roots when you hail from San Antonio, Texas or Lacombe, Alberta) In 2015 the Band recorded its newest 3 track offering dubbed Cowboy In Paradise once again demonstrates Tap 9's versatility. As creative as the band is, in 2015 Tap9 released an original Christmas song called "One More Christmas".

In 2014 the Band created and released a picture video of "For you I Bleed". The song and video are designed to bring awareness to abuse. The song continues to be shared and viewed by thousands. In May 2016 the Band released its first studio of "Sorry for the Party".
