

The Members of The Cincinnati Civic Orchestra
Invite You to Our 93rd Season

SPRING CONCERT

Great Fun !

Music to make you laugh and smile just for fun
Celebrating the second half of our CCO motto "Great Music, Great Fun !"

Sunday, May 1 at 3:00

Norwood Masonic Temple
2020 Hopkins Avenue near Montgomery Road

Funiculi - Funicula

Written for the opening of the Mt. Vesuvius funicular railway, the only major work with fun in the title

A Tribute to John Williams

The original score from the Kennedy Center Honors

The World Premiere of Vaudeville Medley by Edward F. Howard

Jupiter - Bringer of Jollity from The Planets

A great piece of happy, fun and jolly music

The Academic Festival Overture by Johannes Brahms

Brahms composed when awarded an honorary doctorate and he used four student drinking songs as melodies

The Toy Symphony by Franz Joseph Haydn

Written for strings and solo brass and woodwinds performing on toy instruments

Augie's Great Municipal Band* from *Star Wars: The Phantom Menace

The audience will be given kazoos and invited to play along on the kazoo part

The Waltzing Cat by Leroy Anderson

Featuring the violins "meowing" like cats

John Henry by Aaron Copland

The orchestra simulates the sounds of a train and John Henry laying track

Disney Magic

What's Up at the Symphony?

Featuring the music of the cartoons; also known as Bugs Bunny's Greatest Hits

Selections from Hook

Laurence Bonhaus, Music Director

Free Admission

Call (513) 861-9978 for additional information