From the Editor

Well sorry I missed the November meeting. It has been a very busy few months for me. I do plan on attending the Christmas party and hope to see everyone there. Don't forget, the Springfest planning meeting will be held at my place in January. I am looking forward to it.
 The picture above is a flashback from the 1999 Fair (my first one) with my niece and nephew.
 Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all!
 Clay

From Lillian:

We had a great time at Hilton Head Island Car Club Showcase again this year. One of the best parts of this event is the fellowship we enjoy at the Motel and going out to the great Seafood Restaurants.

Saturday started out a little cool as we arrived very early to the show field. As always we were welcomed with open arms. We are treated just like the people with the big cars. Our Corvairs always draw many questions and positive comments.

Joe and Rhondagail Gleaton, Tim Vossler and I had lunch at the Ole Time Country Buffett Nov. 10. No business was conducted, we just enjoyed lunch and fellowship.

It is time for our Christmas Party December 8, 2018. I am looking forward to everyone coming to my home.

It is time for membership dues to be paid. Our dues are only $12.00 (what a bargain).. If you do not plan to see me soon please mail to Lillian Law, 163 Laurelbrook Drive, Leesburg, GA 31763.

Don't forget our Springfest planning meeting at Clay Grants January 12, 2019.

Merry Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year.

Thank all of you for the love and support you have given me during this difficult Year.

LillianFrom The White House – Well I lived in a white house – Chuck Smith – President

It seems that 2018 has almost reached its end, and it wasn't slow about getting here. In your humble presidents opinion, we had a very good year. A successful Springfest, 'Vairs at the Fair, and the club represented our favorite cars at the Hilton Head event. We had some great times, as well as some sad times. And now it is time for our annual Christmas party at Lillian's home. I like every time we get together, but I really enjoy the Christmas party. You get to see people that you might not see otherwise. Getting together with family is one of the best things about this time of year, and I hope no one gets tired of me saying it, but I consider us one big family. If you haven't already done so, please RSVP Lillian, in order to know how much food to prepare. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all, hope to see everyone at Lillian's .

Keep them Corvairs on the road,
and do something nice for somebody.

Chuck
