

JOSE VENTURA

Teacher

Jose is an alumni from Thousand Oaks High School, where he started dancing his freshman year. He was the President for the Co-Ed and All Male Team as a senior, where he competed and received several awards including West Coast Elite Top 11 Soloists.

After high school Jose continued to dance and has worked for Six Flags Fright Fest as a performer. He has trained with award winning, Los Angeles based dance crew, 3-23 Area Kidz and The D-Main Army, where he has expanded his knowledge as a dancer and a teacher in hip hop.

He currently trains with The Alias Dance Fam, and is a part of their collegiate team, The Faction. Aside from training, he is currently a coach of the All Male Dance Team at Thousand Oaks High School. He has helped contribute to the All Male Team earning various awards including them winning a WCE National Title, and much more.

Jose is excited to teach his craft with the students at Aspire, and always looks forward to seeing them step forward and grow along the way.
