

Camille Ross

Camille is a Junior at Quinnipiac University, and also the captain of Kick Line. Before college, Camille attended and graduated from The Educational Center for the Arts (ECA) in New Haven, CT, and studied various types of dance. Modern was the main focus at ECA, focusing on Horton, Martha Graham, and Merce Cunningham. Along with Modern, ECA also offered Ballet, African, Tap, Jazz, Haitian, And Hip-Hop to name a few. Aside from ECA, she was also a member of the Triple Threat Dance Company competition team and spent 15 years studying dance. As a current Business Major and teacher at Triple Threat, Camille hopes to continue her passion of dance, and one day open a dance studio.
