RE: Cause No. D-1-GV-10-000454; In the 126th Judicial District Court of Travis Co., Tx.
State of Texas v. Retirement Value, LLC, et al.

Dear Counsel,

The Court has reviewed the materials submitted in the above-referenced cause regarding Defendants McDermott and Rogers' motions seeking enforcement of the settlement agreement, as well as, seeking this Court's intervention in the criminal prosecutions in Collin County. The Court is aware that the main attorneys relevant to these current disputes (with the exception of Mr. Bogden Rentea) have entered into a Rule 11 agreement in a newly filed suit (Cause No. D-1-GN-15-002396; Michael C. McDermott v. Texas State Securities Board, et al.; in the 201st

Cause No. D-1-GV-10-000454;
In the 126th Judicial District Court of Travis Co., Tx.
State of Texas v. Retirement Value, LLC, et al.
Letter dated August 14, 2015

Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas)(hereinafter “new case”), abating any further action in the new case until such time as the Honorable Benjamin N. Smith, 380th Judicial District Court Judge of Collin County, Texas has ruled on the Motion to Disqualify Special Prosecutors and Dismiss Indictments. This Court finds that it has no jurisdiction over these matters in this case and, therefore, the Court will not consider any such enforcement action as part of this suit.

Sincerely,

Gisela D. Triana
Judge, 200th District Court
Travis County, Texas
