Dear Mr. Carlo Angeles Manturano,

On behalf of the co-chairs of OGP, we are honored to invite you to participate in the Open Government Partnership Global Summit which will be held in Mexico City from October 27 - 29, 2015. Furthermore, we would like to invite you to be a speaker in the panel "Open Government Data updates from around the world", lead by Daniel Dietrich, Co-founder and Chairman of Open Knowledge Foundation Germany.

The Open Government Partnership is a multilateral initiative that aims to secure concrete commitments from governments to promote transparency, empower citizens, fight corruption, and harness new technologies to strengthen governance. There are currently over 65 countries participating around the world.

The theme of the third Global Summit is inclusive development, including a focus on how the principles of open government can support the implementation of the new United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Throughout the summit we will promote dialogue and collaboration between government and civil society. The Global Summit also provides an opportunity to learn from and address the challenges faced by open government practitioners from other governments, civil society and multilateral organizations in implementing the principles of transparency, accountability, civic participation and innovation at the subnational, national and international levels.

If you have any questions or need further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. We thank you in advance for considering this invitation and welcome your participation.

Yours Sincerely,

Joe Powell
Acting Executive Director, OGP Support Unit
