About The Eastern Caribbean Alliance:
ECADE is an independent umbrella organisation, currently with 22 members from the small island territories in the eastern Caribbean from the Virgin Islands to Grenada. ECADE's mandate is to strengthen institutional capacity to respond to LGBTQI policy concerns through knowledge mobilisation, improve governance structures, increasing sensitisation and education by filling an important gap of targeting rights education on LGBTQI concerns generally and within the legal framework of the EC, increase access to funding and funding to membership, increase visibility on the intersectional approach to our advocacy, and reinforce local organisations including human capacity.

Mission: To strengthen regional capacity for the defence and full recognition of human rights through intersectional collaboration, training, network expansion, development of grassroots HRDs and organisations and sensitisation of policy makers, legislators, government and service providers.
Vision: An empowered eastern Caribbean that promotes a culture of human rights, equality, justice and respect for all people.
