STUDY & DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. In PSALM 34, David paints a rosy picture of a follower of God (see vv. 5-10), but we know that David experienced many hardships, trials and difficulties.

- How should we understand these verses in light of David's life?

- How should a believer today apply these verses?

2. Some believe that God's desire to be glorified is selfish. What Biblical response can you offer?

3. From PSALM 34, this study has offered nine ways in which the Lord is glorified. Using Scriptures other than those in this outline, can you suggest several other ways God is glorified?

4. How is God glorified through judgment?
