

Young, Richard

Richard A. Young, 80, resident of Bad Axe, died at home Tuesday morning, April 20, 2004. He was born January 8, 1924 in Detroit, son of the late Sterling and Laura (Holland) Young. He married Donna Canty on August 7, 1976. She survives him. Richard served in the United States Army during World War II. He enjoyed playing golf and spending time with friends and family. Mr. Young is survived by his wife, Donna Young; daughter, Jill Young and her boyfriend, Jim Herber; sister-in-law, Barbara Young; step-daughter, Vicky Schweigert and her husband, Rod, of Bad Axe, Sharon Saivar, Pam Harrison, and Jessie Childers, all of California; step-sons, Robert Harrison, of East Pointe, James Harrison, of Sterling Heights; and many step-grandchildren; and step-great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his son, John "Jack" Young; brother, Ralph Young; and sister, Betty Young. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. on Sunday, May 16, 2004, at Kaul Funeral Home in Roseville, with visitation from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. Hospice Chaplain Karen Bouverette will officiate. Arrangements were handled by MacAlpine Funeral Home of Bad Axe. Visit the web tribute for Richard at www.macalpine.yourtribute.com/RichardYoung. Memorials may be offered to the family discretionary fund.