

Birds of Prey

Live Bird Demonstration

Friday February 19th

10:00am

Visitor Center

Join Marla Isaac and the Friends of Borderland inside the visitor center to see live hawks, owls and even a vulture on Friday February 19 at 10:00am. Marla explains the adaptations that make raptors special, how they hunt and their places in the ecosystem. Take photos up close of these dramatic and awe-inspiring birds! This event is sponsored by the Friends of Borderland.

Heavy blizzard like snow will cancel. In case of a Blizzard, we will hold this event on Saturday February 20 at 10:00am in the visitor center.
