Biography

Stanley Wolschlager, age 92, of Sheridan Township, was called by the Lord to join the love of his life, Josephine on Dec 5, 2018. Stanley was born in Bad Axe, Michigan on June 24, 1926, son of the late Frank and Agnes (Depcinski). He married Josephine Pikula on September 4, 1954 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Bad Axe. Stanley was a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church where he was a Eucharistic Minister, an usher and a past member of the Sacred Heart Church Council. He was also a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 1546 and a 4th Degree member of Bishop Babcock assembly in the Color Corp, served as Grand Knight and 4th Degree Navigator. He attended the Becking Rural School and after high school graduation Stanley attended Michigan State University for Agriculture. Stanley worked as a machinist, did excavating work, and retired from working at the church as a bus driver and grounds keeper. He enjoyed farming all of his life and part of that was being a 4-H Leader. He loved gardening and his apple orchard and sharing his harvest with others, he loved taking care of the lawn and flower beds, playing cards, playing softball, watching the Detroit Tigers, his love for ice cream, making popcorn balls for Halloween, Florida winters, and especially spending time with his family, grandchildren and friends.
