

SUNDAY MORNING
meditation

You're not put on this earth to set everything and everybody straight. You're almost certainly not meant to be super pious busy bodies, constantly confronting others with their sins and scolding them with moralistic sermons. That doesn't mean you aren't here to be an influence, however, or that you're to hide your light under a bushel. Far from it! You're put here to be lights in the world, the only light this dark world has. No one should be able to live around you for long without knowing the Gospel. Your life should be such as to leave no doubt about whose you are and whom you serve. Though you're not prophets, commissioned to denounce your wicked neighbors, you are "called to be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation among whom you shine as lights in the world" (Phil. 2:15). All for Jesus, Richard
