

Superhero

I will be your superhero
Count on me when you're afraid
No need to call just know I'm with you
Your Beautiful, Your everything, To me

As you start your path be true
In all the things you're meant to do.
If you stumble or if you fall
I'll be there, Go stand tall

When you're called to question
And life is anything but clear
Choose your heart, and passion
Known who you are, and you belong

When times feel well beyond hope
Were given chances to be great
Stand up proud and face forward
You are strong, You are brave

Your smarter than you can imagine
Strong enough to you be your self
Brave when called to be free
I believe in you, Lean on me
