A beautiful service was celebrated by Bishop Michael at St Joseph's, Ansdell on Wednesday for Father Kevin. 64 priests and around 650 people from all walks of his life came to pay their last respects to a great, giving man. His sister Anne spoke about how she and the family were overwhelmed with the cards and messages of sympathy they have had over the last few weeks. Afterwards we congregated at the Rugby Club to remember a true friend and confidant.

There was a wonderful tribute to Father Kevin in the Evening Gazette last week. If you would like to read it please follow this link:

"Sometimes, we can tend to assume that as long as we're well-intentioned, God will overlook the more ugly side of our actions. But nothing in Sacred Scripture supports this. In fact, you will find very little soft sentiment in the words of the Lord Jesus. We can, of course, count on God's mercy and compassion, but we can also count on his justice. God will always love us, no matter what we do. But love always tells the truth."
