

Globe Guilders present CAVORT 2018

Newsletter 2, June 2018

CAVORT 2018 October 11-13, 2018

We are so excited to soon welcome you to this insightful and fun Conference! Much has changed at The Old Globe since many of you were last here in 2000.

In this issue you will find what you need to join CAVORT and attend the 2018 Conference. A Globe Guilder Committee has worked hard to organize a wonderful event for you here in San Diego. The new website, www.CAVORTinc.org, is up and full of all the information you'll need!

To start things off, consider arriving early and take advantage of a wonderful optional tour! This extra outing on Thursday October 11 will offer you a rare insider tour of The Old Globe's Tech center, followed by a Trolley tour of San Diego, and a shopping opportunity at Seaport Village, all with lunch included! If you are interested, get your registration in ASAP since this optional tour is limited to 30. But if you miss this one, don't worry because there are plenty of things to do while you're here. To make it easy, just check out your CAVORT website for a list of those opportunities.

Conference check in will begin on Thursday October 11 at 3:00 pm. There will be a lovely al fresco opening reception with our fantastic Old Globe Managing Director, Timothy J. Shields, on hand to meet you. Get some sleep that night because we start in the morning and we don't slow down. Needless to say, we'll keep you busy! For specific details on the Conference schedule, please see the schedule breakdown in this newsletter.

After CAVORT, we encourage you to stay and enjoy our city. Let us know what you are interested in doing and we'll see if we can help in any way.

Now on to some housekeeping! There are some jobs we need your help with now. We need your Bright Ideas for the competition. We will be giving the cash awards again, so make some money for your Theatre and send in a Bright Idea. The details are on the website. We also need to know if your Theatre is interested in putting up a display in the Hospitality Suite. Please respond to the information here in this newsletter and let us know. We can save a half or a third of a 6' table for you.

On your registration form you will see we offer an early-bird option which is good until August 1. Early registration will save you money and helps the host Theatre with required minimums and deposits. Also, we will continue to accept registrations but will not be able to make Conference fee refunds after September 1. So, if for some reason you need to cancel, please remember to do so before the September 1 deadline.

Again, we have a wonderful CAVORT in store for you! We look forward to your visit and we're here to answer any questions and help in any way we can.

Sincerely,

Wendy Ledford, CAVORT 2018 Conference Chair

In Louisville, where I live, we informally signal the beginning of early summer with the Kentucky Derby. Well, Justify won the big race, and our temperatures are beginning to hint at summer weather. Even so, it will be fall before we know it! Does time seem to move faster than it used to?

I hope you're thinking ahead to October and the 2018 CAVORT conference at the Old Globe Theatre in San Diego. I've made my hotel reservation and have begun reviewing air fares and flight schedules. I'm already looking forward to the opportunity to see this exciting new play and learn more about The Old Globe. But most of all, I'm eagerly anticipating a visit with old friends and the prospect of making new ones who love theatre as much as I do. I can't wait to learn about what exciting endeavors your theatres and their volunteers have been up to since our last CAVORT.

If CAVORT 2018 hasn't been on your radar just yet, please take a moment and add it to your To Do List. It truly is right around the corner, and we'd really like to share the conference with you. See you in San Diego!

The New Musical Heart of Rock and Roll, inspired by the songs of Huey Lewis and The News!

With chart-topping songs such as “Hip to Be Square,” “Do You Believe in Love,” “Workin’ for a Livin’,” and the Academy Award-nominated “The Power of Love,” Huey Lewis is one of the most beloved musicians of his generation. Now his high-energy hits will keep your heart still beatin’ at this irrepressible world premiere musical. Bobby is a former rock singer who has traded in his guitar for a stable job in corporate America. He’s on the verge of closing the ultimate business deal and winning the girl of his dreams (who’s also the CEO’s daughter)—that is, if he doesn’t jeopardize everything by reuniting with his band for another shot at rock-and-roll glory. Rediscover Huey Lewis and the News’s heart-pumping classics in this hilarious and electrifying new musical about holding onto your dreams and never losing the thrill of the “heart of rock and roll.”

Book by Jonathan Abrams

Story by Tyler Mitchell and Jonathan Abrams

Directed by Gordon Greenberg

Choreography by Lorin Latarro

Music supervision, arrangements, and orchestrations by Brian Usifer

Heart of Rock and Roll* will be presented by special arrangement with Tyler Mitchell, W. Leo Kiely, Bill Kiely, Whitney Kiely Moehle, and Tamar Climan

Thursday, October 11th - $70 pp.

This tour is available for those who are ready to be early risers and have arrived earlier than Thursday, because it leaves the Crowne Plaza Hotel at 8:30 AM! A maximum of 30 people will hop on the Trolley and head to a 9 AM tour of The Old Globe's Technical Center.

This 42,000 square-foot facility, located in Southeast San Diego, is where the Globe's technical and paint departments construct the extraordinary scenery seen on our three stages and where The Old Globe's vast costume and props collection are archived. The Tech Center Tour, led by Globe Technical Director Joe Powell, will give attendees a behind-the-scenes look into the creation of the set of the Globe's upcoming holiday production, Looking for Christmas. This 1 hour-long tour requires attendees to be steady on their feet and stand for extended periods.

The Old Globe Technical Center, which is located off of the Globe campus and not included in the Saturday BTS conference tour, has been made specially available for this small group of CAVORT conference attendees, with a short Q&A afterwards.

After this, your morning continues with a trolley tour of San Diego; climb aboard our beloved and iconic trolley tour for a two-hour excursion into the heart of San Diego! Sit back, relax, and enjoy lively narration provided by our award-winning conductors who will bring the city's past and present to life. You'll travel over 25 miles to see ten of the most popular destinations in San Diego, including the bustling markets and restaurants of Old Town State Historic Park, the wind-swept majesty of the harborside Embarcadero, the coastal playground of Coronado Island, and Balboa Park – the largest urban cultural park in the country. Get ready to soak up the sun, sights, and stories of America's Finest City, San Diego!

The day wraps up with lunch at Buster's a choice of Cobb Salad or Beach Burger awaits you at this very San Diego beach themed and dock side restaurant. You will have a brief chance to go shopping in Seaport Village. Then the trolley will get you back to the hotel in time for CAVORT check in at 3:00 pm and a chance to catch your breath before the evening opening festivities or in time for the board meeting for those who will be squeezing that in between.

We hope that many of you will join us for this fun and exclusive outing. However, please note that if we do not get a minimum of 20 attendees, we will cancel the tour, refund any payments made to attendees, and send notice that a change has been made to our schedule.

Join in on the fun, and we'll see you all soon in sunny San Diego!

CAVORT MISSION STATEMENT

The Conference about Volunteers of Regional Theatre is a not-for-profit corporation whose purpose is to strengthen and recognize volunteer organizations. We need to hear from YOU !!

CAVORT 2018 will be here before you know it. An important component of the conference is sharing ideas that sister theatre's can utilize to better their programs. CAVORT Member Theatre's are invited to submit Bright Ideas. All genre of projects are welcome, be it fundraising, working with volunteers or just a novel thought that will help a volunteer organization theatre function better. If your theatre would like to participate in Bright Ideas but is not a CAVORT Theatre Member, please go to cavortinc.org to learn how to become one. It's easy.

Three ideas submitted by CAVORT Member Theatre's deemed to be the best will receive cash prizes: one $100 and two $50s. Judging will be based on originality, how easy for other theaters to use, perceived results and long term benefits.

Guidelines for Submissions:

You may submit more than one idea. Please submit each idea separately.

Deadline for Submittal: August 30, 2018

SAVE TIME – RENEW YOUR CAVORT MEMBERSHIP WHILE YOU'RE AT THE CONFERENCE

It's been several months since you attended the CAVORT conference. You go to the CAVORT website to check out the Bright Ideas and Volunteer Support posted by CAVORT Member Theatres. Then you begin to wonder, "Have I paid my CAVORT dues yet?" Happens all the time.

The easiest way to manage your Individual Membership is to renew while you're at the conference. Then you won't have to think about it until the next conference. We'll have membership forms at the General Meeting on Saturday afternoon of the 2018 San Diego conference, and our treasurer will be more than glad to accept your dues at that time.

Sometimes folks are confused about the duration of their dues, so please let me clarify that for you. Regardless of when you pay your dues, your individual CAVORT membership runs from conference to conference. In other words, CAVORT membership runs from the day after a conference ends through the last day of the next conference. Consequently, everyone's individual membership is due for renewal immediately after each conference.

Dues are the only source of CAVORT income. Much needs to be accomplished before conference registration forms become available, so the bulk of CAVORT dues revenue goes to the upcoming conference hosts for use as seed money in their conference planning. Your CAVORT dues make it possible to continue the wonderful tradition of honoring theatre volunteers with their very own conference every two years.

If your theatre is a CAVORT Theatre Member in good standing, your Individual dues are only $10. If your theatre is not a CAVORT Theatre Member, your Individual dues are $15 – still a bargain! We'd love to welcome your theatre as a new CAVORT Theatre Member so we can showcase them on the CAVORT website!

Theatre and Individual membership forms are available www.cavortinc.org/about-cavort.html for printing. Forms are also provided in this newsletter. While you're on that website page, take a look at the benefits of both Theatre and Individual Membership in CAVORT. Volunteers far and wide benefit directly and indirectly from your small contribution in the form of CAVORT dues.

Joining CAVORT is a simple way to demonstrate your support for the valuable work done by volunteers for the theatres they love. Thank you for your support of CAVORT and theatre volunteers everywhere!
