A Note from Rick: It was a busy week at TLA with very active markets. On Tuesday, calf prices bounced back and were roughly $10 higher than a week ago. Slaughter cow prices were steady- slightly lower again this week. The Feeders and Dairy Replacement prices will get a good test next week at the October Special Feeder Sale. Thursday's Special Springer Sale was very strong compared to last month. Heifers were $100-$125 higher on the average. Prices were very comparable to the August Sale, which is where I look for them to trend. Friday and Saturday we held the Friesian Fall Classic. We had a big crowd both days and prices were very strong. We had several highlights throughout both days, which wasn't a surprise with the high quality lineup that was offered. We'll spend this week preparing for the Driving Horse Sale on Saturday and then it's the week we've all been waiting for- The Fall Draft. See you at TLA!
