Sunday Meditation

There's school of thought on the subject of prayer which says that prayer doesn't affect God, but us. The purpose of prayer is not so much to get as to teach, to train us in patience, tranquility, selflessness and submission to God's will. The sad irony of this teaching is that the main value to the pray-er is in his not getting his prayers answered. Prayer becomes for Christians a mere task we perform because God commands us to pray, not because we expect Him to give us what we ask. What a demoralizing and unscriptural view of prayer this is! The Bible is replete with assurances that God wants us to pray and to expect answers to our prayers. Our heavenly Father doesn't withhold answers so we can learn submission. He wants us to pray His will down from heaven (Matt. 6:10) and to walk joyfully in His Fatherly care. All for Jesus, Richard

The best BBQ and a worthy cause! Tell your friends and neighbors about our Honduras BBQ fundraiser. We are starting pre-sales today, and the event will be on Sat. March 24th. This year we are offering a $5 sack lunch, and a $35 whole smoked Boston butt with sauce. This is our teams final fundraiser effort before our mission trip on April 14-22. Please pray for their safety & that God's love will shine. Tickets are in the foyer for those HUNGRY to help our mission team!
