“Therefore knowing the fear of the Lord, we persuade men...For the love of Christ constrains us, having concluded this, that one died for all, therefore all died; and He died for all, that they who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf. Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature; the old things passed away; behold, new things have come. Now all these things are from God, who reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and gave us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world unto Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and He has committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were entreating through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. He made Him who knew no sin to be sin on our behalf, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.”

2 Corinthians 5:11, 14-21

Wait For It

There is a great evil that exists and that evil is the tongue. The prophet James said, the tongue is a “restless evil, it is full of deadly poison” (Jam. 3:8), i.e., a member of the body that will not be restrained. However, Solomon said, there is “a time to keep silence, and a time to speak” (Eccl. 3:7). The actions of keeping silent, and speaking are in a constant state of turmoil. There are times when men should speak, i.e., “grant unto thy servants to speak thy word with all boldness” (Acts 4:29), and there are times when men should refrain from speaking, i.e., “He that giveth answer before he heareth, it is folly and shame unto him” (Prov. 18:13).

Man has a tendency of giving an “answer before he heareth” that we should give great attention. Although “A man hath joy in the answer of his mouth” (Prov. 15:23), much discretion should be exercised: “The heart of the righteous studieth to answer; But the mouth of the wicked poureth out evil things” (Prov. 15:28). As Solomon said, “Death and life are in the power of the tongue” (Prov. 18:21). Do as the Lord told Habakkuk and “wait for it,” it will be a matter of death, or life. ret
