

Toby's Adoption fee is $250

Are you looking for a very handsome man in your life that can give you a lot of love, and smother you with hugs and kisses? If so that is ME! My name is Toby I am a total sweetheart or that's what I am told by every one that meets me, all I ever get are compliments. Don't let my age fool you, I'm a fun loving 13.5 year PomCHI weighing in at 13 lbs who loves to walk and play outside. I have been vet checked and I am 100 % healthy, I may just need a little help getting up the stairs sometimes. My fur is light brown, and very soft, with tufts of fur around the ears which makes me awfully cute (and I like scratches there too)! I am a very wise stubborn little man with a little grey around the face but since I'm a responsible adult, you don't need to worry about my behavior in the house. I am 100% housebroken and you can leave me alone in your house knowing everything will be just as you left it when you return.

I love sleeping in my foster mom bed, especially when we play peek a poo with the blankets so hopefully I can sleep in yours too.

I love to make friends so if you have another dog or cat in the home, I'd love to be their best bud. I think my ideal home would be a quiet one with someone who is retired or who works from home. I am extremely affectionate and if you give this little senior guy a chance, I promise you I will be your best furry companion.
