

Suffolk Youth Leadership Workers Exchange Co-operative Ideas Here

A SIGNIFICANT meeting under the auspices of the Suffolk County Sunday-school association was held at the Bonnie Mart restaurant, Patchogue, Tuesday evening of last week.

Those present were Dr. E. R. Hildreth, president of the association; R. P. Anderson, county Scout executive; the Rev. Lewis H. Davis, superintendent of Youth Work of the association; Mrs. L. H. Davis, the Rev. H. E. Moyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Topping, the Rev. George J. Riester and Raymond Loper, representing the Presbyterian Youth League; Miss Marion Rhey Wadhams, president Youth Temperance council; George H. Westerboke, superintendent West-end district of the Sunday-school association; the Rev. Paul Herriott, representing the Pilgrim Fellowship, Congregational church; Richard T. Francis, president Brooklyn North district Epworth League; Miss Amy Blanche Greene, secretary youth work, Greater New York Federation of Churches; and Miss Marguerite Skidmore, director Christian education of the county association.

The purpose was in the first place to bring together the leaders of denominational, non-denominational and inter-denominational religious and character-building agencies, that each might get a picture of the entire work being done in the county.

The meeting was called by Miss Marguerite Skidmore and the Rev. Lewis H. Davis. After a pleasant fellowship hour at dinner there was informal discussion led by Miss Skidmore, the representative of each organization giving briefly the outstanding features of its work.

Mr. Anderson reported 75 Scout troops in 40 communities, one-third of these sponsored by churches.

The Rev. H. E. Moyer explained the Presbyterian Youth League as functioning to bring to Presbyterian youth greater awareness of their denominational projects and activities. Raymond Loper gave a concrete example of this as it worked out in a recent youth rally where the guest speaker told of the work at one of the Presbyterian schools and subsequently the youth group sent gifts to this school. It was explained that the Youth League does not compete with the Christian Endeavor organization. Mr. Moyer described a fine inter-denominational Sunday evening program among youth of three churches in Bridgehampton.

Mr. Herriott pointed out the summer and week-end conferences as the most constructive feature of the program carried on by the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational church. Richard Francis, president of the Brooklyn North District Epworth League, also spoke particularly of the week-end institutes at which courses in Bible and worship are offered and recreation and fellowship provided. Mr. Francis was interested in the fact of there being a Youth Temperance council which was represented by Miss Marion Rhey Wadhams.

Miss Amy Blanche Greene's earnest presentation of the Youth Movement stirred those present to desire to constitute themselves the executive committee to stimulate a Youth council in Suffolk county.

The Youth movement which Miss Greene discussed has for its slogan, "Christian Youth Building a New World." Youth Council of North America has set up definite objectives to be carried through by the youth of some 50 denominations and agencies and representing ten million Protestant youths in United States and Canada. The purpose is to rally youth to study, thought and action about building a new and Christian world.

The projects which the movement will stress in the next few years are: The Economic Problem, Building a Warless World, Breaking Down Racial Barriers, the Liquor Problem, Using Leisure Time, Preparing for Marriage, Christian Patriotism.

As an initial step in causing the Youth Movement to become a reality in Suffolk county, effort will be made to have delegates attend the State Youth Council convention at Rochester over Washington's birthday. Miss Skidmore suggested that youths attending colleges near Rochester be invited to be delegates, thus saving travel expense. It was also agreed that a conference at which the delegates may share their experience with youth of the county be arranged, probably during the spring vacation.

Harry T. Weeks of Patchogue of long executive experience with the Sunday-school association, said he did not recall that the association had ever had a meeting at which so many religious and character-building agencies had been represented, and he felt that with such a constituency any desired plan could be accomplished.

Representatives of several other organizations were expected to attend but were prevented, mainly by the bad weather.

Insurance companies consider overweight a serious disability. The most common causes of overweight are too much food and too little exercise. Nostrums for reduction of weight are usually dangerous.

The Boy Scouts And Men Leaders Now Very Active

DALLAS OVERTON of Troop 5, Patchogue, and Grover Silliman of Troop 16, Sayville, represented the Suffolk Council in the guard of honor for President Franklin D. Roosevelt on the occasion of the dedication of the New York State Theodore Roosevelt Memorial on January 10. 86 Eagle Scouts from 39 local councils in the eastern states constituted the guard of honor.

Dr. Grover A. Silliman of Sayville, chairman of the health and safety committee of the Suffolk Scout council, accompanied the boys.

The Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their twenty-sixth birthday February 6 to 13, and all Scout troops are busy planning participation. Boy Scout exhibits in store windows; special civic service activities, sermons in churches, rallies and Courts of Honor will feature this year's celebration.

The probability of a special overnight camp site for Boy Scouts in the Town of Huntington is being promoted by Supervisor Kreutzer, who, at the request of County Judge Hawkins, is trying to secure adequate property for this purpose, with the hope that announcement of details of location can be made soon.

Training Conferences for adult officials of Scouting are being conducted as follows: January 27 in District 6, under the supervision of District Chairman George M. Fox at the West-hampton Beach High school, January 28, in District 8, under the leadership of Training Chairman Clyde H. Ketcham at the Islip High school, and at Riverhead for District 3, under the direction of Training Chairman John B. Thomas.

District 5 is holding a business session and training conferences at the Bridgehampton Community house on January 29, under the direction of District Chairman Bryan Hamlin. District 2 met at Port Jefferson Station last night under the direction of Training Chairman E. L. Vandermolen. District 7 is holding a similar conference on February 6, under the direction of Training Chairman S. K. Munson, principal of the Sayville High school, but the location has not yet been decided.

Districts 1, 4 and 9 are expected to make arrangements and announcements soon. Present indications are that more than 300 men will participate in these sessions.

Judge Cermak of East Northport, recently elected justice of the peace, and for the past 16 years Scoutmaster and Scout official, attended a special week-end conference at the Mortimer Schiff Reservation at Mondham, N. J., accompanied by Assistant Scout Executive Lawrence H. Parsons.

The conference was called for the purpose of training local Scout officials in the necessities of volunteer services to Scout troops. Judge Cermak will make a written report which will be placed in the hands of all of the Scout commissioners, numbering 20, in the Suffolk council.

Varied Book Diet for Week-end

THE CONSTANT NYMPH Margaret Kennedy—1925. The death of the erratic composer, Albert Sanger, brought his strange brood of gifted, untaught and untrained children into unhappy contact with the refinements of civilization. The development of these children against a background of musical London provides a thoroughly unconventional and absorbing story.

BRAZILIAN ADVENTURE Peter Fleming—1934. A book of travel not like any other book of travel; it is quite crazy and a delight to read. Mr. Fleming is out to "debunk" adventure and he makes his book supremely entertaining.

BEFORE THE DAWN OF HISTORY Charles R. Knight—1935. Those who are familiar with the murals and other work of Chas. R. Knight in the American Museum of Natural History will hardly need to be told of the character, the beauty and the interest of the illustrations of this volume.

Lake Ronkonkoma Ice Boating Is Drawing Many Sportsmen Now

THE continued cold weather has made plenty of sport on the ice at Lake Ronkonkoma.

Tuesday no less than 12 scooters, owned by many members of the South Bay Scooter club and half a dozen iceboats of the Lake Ronkonkoma iceboat club were being tuned up preparatory to the first scooter and iceboat races on the lake this season. Tomorrow the annual mid-winter tilt between iceboats and scooters will take place.

In view of the fact that one of the iceboats, the "Flight," formerly owned and sailed by President Roosevelt, will be seen in action, together with the fastest scooters of the Great South bay, including a new one, No. 88, the "Big Scoot," designed, built and recently outfitted by William Harless of Patchogue, together with the cream of the scooter fleet, a record number of spectators are expected to witness tomorrow's and Sunday's races.

The "Flight" was purchased by Commodore Walter Gubner of Lake Ronkonkoma at Hyde Park, while Roosevelt was governor. Gubner later sold it to its present owner, Seth Thayer of Port Washington, who has it stored in H. L. Terry's pavilion at the lake awaiting the starting signal of the races. Other iceboats in readiness for sailing are owned by Joseph Kirk, Gubner, Max Greis, Louis Heilman and Jack Miles of the lake and Jack Ahrens, Thayer, Howard Curry and Robert Frazier of Port Washington.

The scooters on hand and being tuned up for the forthcoming ice frays include: No. 88, Big Scoot, William Harless, No. 30, Little Scoot, William Harless; No. 1, Jack Bason, "Ike" Ruland; No. 35; Ida A III, Colson brothers; No. 14, Setting Hen, "Eob" Roe; No. 7, Elroid, Kellogg Domy; No. 10, Miss Bay Shore, Charles Reeves; No. 36, Ida II, "Dutch" Ackery; No. 6, Wuzz-Cliff, McGinnies & Cox; No. 32, Yankee, Frank Weeks; No. 9, Wildcat, Howard Norton; No. 71, Evelyn, Tom Lockyer; No. 8, Margy II, Gilbert Clark.

Tuesday afternoon while Commodore Gubner was sailing in his two iceboats, a 27-footer, that he had re-steered in the new fashion of front steering and while he was perched about six feet off the ice and his 12-foot runner was partly off the ice, the runner snapped, throwing him into the air and he landed on the ice about 20 feet away. His right cheekbone was cut so deep that he had to be assisted to the home of Dr. Guy McLean who took two stitches in the wound. Shortly afterwards "Zeke" Gerard of Patchogue, was hurled from a speeding scooter while it was sailing on one runner and tilted at a sharp angle and had the skin scraped off his nose. There were plenty of upsets but aside from Gubner's iceboat no other craft was damaged.

Ever since the organization of the iceboat club it has held its headquarters in a pavilion-like building on the Gubner property close to the water's edge. It is comfortably furnished and heated and at the disposal of the visiting scooter fans from the South Shore. In addition to the Lake Ronkonkoma and Port Washington iceboat fans, "ships" from western Long Island clubs are expected to take part in the week-end races.

P.H.S. Team Plays Babylon Tonight

A HOPEFUL Patchogue High school basketball team will invade the Babylon high school gym tonight, confident of getting back into the thick of the league race at the expense of the Orange and Black. The off-defeated Babylon outfit, without a victory to its credit, is expected to be the first stepping stone in Patchogue's march to better days.

A victory over Sayville and successive defeats in the hands of Amityville and Huntington has put the Red and Black into a tie with Sayville for third place in Section 1. A victory in this evening's fracas would boost the Patchogue average up to the .500 mark while a defeat would mean virtual elimination in the league race. The Babylon lineup of rugged but unskilled players will be struggling desperately for their maiden 1936 triumph and will not be taken lightly as an opponent.

Bay Shore, the 1935 Suffolk County champion, is a heavy favorite over the Sayville team when they meet on the former's court in another Section 1 engagement this evening. Bay Shore has not lost a league game this winter, conquering Amityville, Huntington and Babylon on successive Friday nights. They now hold an undisputed position as odds-on favorite to retain at least the Section 1 title. The other local league affair will be played between Huntington and Amityville on the Huntington court with the Blue and White ruling favorite. The teams are tied for second place with two wins and one loss apiece.

Watching the Second Team

Local fans will look with interest on the preliminary game to the Patchogue-Babylon tussle which will find the Red and Black juniors seeking their eighth consecutive victory. With only Babylon and Bay Shore to be met before the second swing around the loop begins, the local seconds are in a strong position to go through the season undefeated. Both Babylon and Bay Shore have second teams that are not as strong as the locals have already met and defeated and should the Patchogues continue their present pace they have every factor in their favor toward finishing the season unbeaten.

not forgotten the defeat they suffered at Sag Harbor three weeks ago.

FRANK TROTTA'S basketball team gained undisputed possession of first place in the Bellport Community league Wednesday night with a 15-10 victory over the North Bellport team. Although the final score was a one-sided one it does not indicate the hard fought nature of the game as the losers put up a good scrap all the way through.

In the second game Brookhaven showed a reversal of form and came through to gain a one-pointed victory over Hagerman, the verdict being 11 to 10.
