

Virginia Hereford Association Scholarship

The Virginia Hereford Association Scholarship will be awarded annually by the Virginia Hereford Association to qualified students 10th grade through 21 years of age student(s) who are member(s) of The Virginia Junior Hereford Association.

These students plan to attend (or are attending) either a trade school or an institute of higher learning.

The Scholarship Board will consist of four Virginia Hereford Association Board Members---The current President of the VHA and three other board members.

The 2019 Scholarships awarded will be as follows:

First Place- $1,000

Second Place - $500

Third Place - $250

These monetary awards will be paid to the Institution of choice in the name of the winners.

Special Notes:

1. In the event that award winner(s) are not high school seniors, the financial awards will be accrued and paid when an acceptance letter to either a trade school or an institute of higher learning is provided for matriculation beginning in September of the student's high school graduating year.

Applicants for the VHA Scholarship must meet the following criteria:

- 1) Be a junior member of the Virginia Hereford Association.
- 2) Submit a completed VHA Scholarship Application.
- 3) Submit a letter of acceptance to either a trade school or an Institute of Higher learning.
- 4) Submit an Essay of 250 -500 words (typed, double spaced) discussing "How my experiences with cattle have prepared me for future life experiences".
