MAY 2016

Volume 7 Issue IX

FAREWELL!!

VIVACE Musica, "Music to touch, move and inspire!"- B. Jackson Caesar

I am writing to officially inform you all that I am saying goodbye to the VIVACE Musica newsletter. The VIVACE Musica launched, (Volume I) the fall of 2009 comprised of nine issues (September-May). and has endured seven successful volumes!! That's right, seven productive years with YOU; my fans and supporters, keeping you in the loop of what's going on with Jackson Caesar. Although, it is not for certain if this farewell is temporary, or permanent, however, it is with regret that I write this letter, moreover, I'm excited at the prospect of moving forward in my musical endeavors.

Goodbyes can be quite difficult, yet, I feel fortunate to say farewell to something I took great pleasure in. Primarily, in knowing that my next move is just as productive, progressive and promising! However, all good things must come to an end and I'm thrilled to look back over the years and marvel over how I made it this far. Unfortunately, I can't list every activity, but here are a few highlights of some of the grand achievements during these seven years:

- 2009- Inauguration of my singing career as a fulltime profession and website.
- 2009- First (fundraiser) concert raised $800.00 for St. Jude Children's Research Center (included radio and newspaper reviews).
- 2010- Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Regional Convention (Delaware State)
- 2011- Launch of the Roland Hayes Production. Spirituals, Celebrating the Music, Life, and Legacy.
- 2012- Sacred Arias Recital II featuring the Symphonic Orchestra of Northern Virginia and the Patrick Lundy & the Ministers of Music Choir. (Washington, DC)
- 2014- (Debut) S'Wonderful Jazz Concert. Blues Alley, Washington, DC (Georgetown)
- 2014- Began teaching from home. Five subjects; Voice, Piano, Spanish, English, and Public Speaking. Currently, 25+ students.
- 2015- Holiday/Christmas tour. (Included: "Mother's Day Concert" at The Shenandoah Valley Museum, Winchester, VA and "Tis the Season!" a return to Blues Alley, Washington, DC).
- 2016- Finally, in the music studio recording original and historic material. Stay tuned!

As you can see, this musical journey has been "lively," and energetic since its launch. I'm proud to see that it has lived its name 'VIVACE!' It has been my greatest pleasure partnering with you; both the good and challenging times. I especially appreciate all the people who took the time to lead and guide me in wisdom, and to those who have volunteered their time and monetary gifts. One thing is for certain, my gratitude is endless for the countless acts of kindness and support shown me as I made this journey. Each of you were instrumental in helping me with these achievements. Above all, I am grateful for the abundant love given-as unworthy as I am- by God Himself. No matter where my platform takes me, it's wonderful to know how we continue to inspire one another. I extend my best wishes to all of you!

FAQs

Q: Are there any learned lessons over the 7 years, you'd like to share?

A: Yes! Follow your heart. It's like listening to your intuition...it's never wrong! Now, that I'm listening to that voice, I actually have "peace of mind" when it comes to dealing with people and life challenges (within my musical environment). Finally, keep God first. Things generally, tend to work out better overall.
