Song Leader Help

by Tim Smith via BEACON A publication of Bellview church of Christ Pensacola, FL

What can I do to help my song leader? Most song leaders are not paid by the congregation for which they lead singing, and indeed, most congregations of the Lord’s people have more than one man who will lead. While they are performing their duties to the Lord by using their talents in His service and to His glory, we still should appreciate the service they provide Him and us enough to wish to help them in every way we can. Let us notice a few of the ways in which we can help him.

First, I can sing! Silence is not singing. When the song is being led, participate fully! Raise your voice to God’s glory and to the edification of those around you (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). You need not worry about tone or tune, the primary concern in congregational singing is the message. Read the book and sing the words.

Second, I can follow the leader! The leader is the man standing before the crowd - follow him. When he starts, you start. When he speeds up, you speed up. When he slows down, you slow down. Follow him.

Third, I can encourage him! Tell him of his good work. Tell him that you appreciate him and his efforts. Even though not everyone is perfect in tone and tune, those who are willing to lead are worthy of our encouragement.
