Bowling – Jennifer Coughlin & Tara Herd

- The Men's Varsity team is now tied for first place with Glen Este. The boys beat GE by one pin Tuesday night. The Knights also have 2 bowlers (Joe Ventre and Matthew Oberlin) in the top 5 for overall average in the ECC.
- The Girls also continue to get better. Anna-Claire Barker put up a new career best 202 at the ECC tournament. Lauren Goslee was recently named athlete of the week at KHS.
- Coach K took a group of bowlers to Main Event in West Chester over break to practice and bond as a team. We had a lot of KBT alumni come back and fellowship with current bowlers.
- Overall the KBT is having a great season. We are excited about our Annual Quiz Bowl coming up on Jan. 28th. Leave no pin standing!

JH Dance – Tara Herd

- The 7th and 8th grade girls just keep dancing! Since being back in the swing of things this month, they have performed a poms disco routine and another hip hop routine. They continue to shine, have fun and get great feedback from the crowd. This weekend, some girls from the junior high team are heading to Walnut Hills to watch the high school competition team perform and get a flavor for what that is like. Next Friday after school, parents are helping us carpool to Crossgate Lanes for bowling and dinner as a team building experience and a chance to hang out. The girls performs during 5 more games this month and continue to work on fine tuning all their performances for the spring show coming at the end of February.
