A Note from Rick: Markets were steady to slightly lower at TLA this week. Butcher cows were $1-$2 lower, while the calf market was slightly stronger. Holstein Steers were a little lower along with Mixed steers. The weather and the calendar are definitely seeing eye to eye. It's hot and humid and it's July. The dog days of summer are here and it definitely takes a toll on people, as well as livestock. Remember all those weeks we were looking for the warm weather to show up? Guess we gotta be careful what we wish for! Just like the ice and cold in winter- the hot and humid is something we have to deal with.
