6. Old Business:

- A. The club held its June cruise on Sunday, June 16th. Since Dave & Susie didn't attend, he asked if anyone could inform us about the cruise. Bryan said there were 8 cars and 15 members. They had a great cruise to Mountain View and had lunch at JoJo's. They returned to Mountain Home thru Push Mountain.
- B. The club donated $100.00 to the Elks Club for their veteran's golf tournament. A photo and write up was in the Baxter Bulletin on Tuesday June 4th. Dave suggested that we should look for other causes to donate to.
- C. Chris at the Cotton Company said that he had 12 orders for shirts. The shirts that he did not have on hand were ordered and the print should take place early next week. Dave will keep everyone advised as to when they will be ready to pick up. He let everyone know that if they wanted a shirt they had to be ordered by the next day.

7. New Business:

- A. Kink attended the West Plains car show that was originally scheduled for June 1st but actually took place on the 8th. He did very well, winning "Best in Class" and "Best of Show". Dave said from the picture he saw, he was going to need a trophy room to store all his awards.
- B. The annual Baker Pool party will be Saturday the 22nd. Larry said they had heard from 11 couples to date. If you want to swim, pool is open around 4 and meal will be served at 6:30. Bring a dish of choice and remember no glass at the pool.
