Vol. 5 No. 4 ~ Winter 2020

Clad in costumes created by then-owner Kathy Wells, Voltaire (left) and Poltergeist, both Breyers customized by Bev Zimmer in the mid-1980s, carry holiday greetings as evergreen now as when this photo was taken 35 years ago. Best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year from VCMEC!

A Word to the Fore: All the News that Fits!

Happy New Year!

We're a tad late out of the gate, but hope you'll enjoy this jam-packed 34-page issue.

The model horse hobby recently lost two important pioneers with the passing of Sherry Cook McDonald in September and Linda Kelly in October. We're grateful to hobby historian Teresa Rogers for sharing memories of Linda in her feature that starts on page 6.

I never met either Sherry or Linda, but have been fascinated with Sherry's work from the time I started showing in 1985. Her mid-'70s creation Imagineer, above, is one of the dearest members of my herd, and I'm always searching for more of the vintage customs she branded "Originals by Sherry."

When the sad news came that Sherry had passed away, we wanted to pay our respects with a feature this issue--and thanks to longtime hobbyist Jean Derench, that feature became something even more.

Jean put us in touch with Jo Maness, who connected us with Sherry's daughter Carri Shubert, who generously invited us for a tour of Sherry's studio on what would have been her 78th birthday! We're so grateful to Carri, as well as to Jean, Jo, and the hobbyists who contributed comments and photos of their Originals by Sherry. Heartfelt thanks too to Corky for writing this extra-special feature, which starts on the next page.

Every artist should be sure to read "Lost and Found," an article by Susan Stahl that you'll find on page 10. Thanks so much, Sue!

Sue also donated Fanciful Fyre, a sweet vintage custom with vintage tack set all created by Heidi Bright in 1978-79, to the VCMEC Museum. Read all about him, along with the vintage custom Canterng Welsh Pony (please let us know if you recognize her!) donated by Julia Nichols of Copperfox, via Eleda Towle of Triple Mountain Model Horses, on page 7! We greatly appreciate these donations, and look forward to displaying them in the Museum.

We're also mighty thankful to Alicia Vogel and Beth Andries for donating 39 beautifully organized binders of Beth's 1984-2008 model horse magazines and newsletters (pictured here with our pupster Sachi) to our Model Animal Hobby History Archive! Part of the VCMEC

Museum, the Archive will be available for visitors to peruse once we open in 2022; we look forward to cataloging the vintage customs in its pages, and Sachi looks forward to assisting. Thanks again, Alicia and Beth!

With that 2022 opening square in our sights, we will at last be making our big move north this fall. More details next issue!

In Vintage CM Census news, folks' many requests to extend the deadline have convinced us to do it. (And this way, all of our own vintage customs currently in storage will be able to get unpacked and photographed after we move so they can be included, too!) The new deadline is 12/31/2021--and in the meantime, the Census' photo upload site makes a fantastic online reference site gathering more than 300 artists' work: vintagecmcensus.smugmug.com!

The 2020-21 VCMEC Online World Championships series is underway--and how! You'll find the results of its first leg in this issue, with the overall champions and reserves on parade in the Victory Lap that follows. (And for the record, we've reached the 100th horse in the series' history to earn a Victory Lap: Ibn Hotep, created by Ava Durbin and owned by Susan Stahl! Congratulations!) There's an unfortunate "oops!" in the results, though: The photo of the 1960s/ '70s Reserve Champion Foal, Shannon Rodgers' nifty Northern Lad, was accidentally left out. Very sorry, Shannon--here he is!

Next issue will feature the results of the VCMEC Online World Championships' second leg, judged by Linda Watson Gresham. In the meantime, the third leg is nearly here! The gate is open now, at vcmec.smugmug.com, and will close at midnight U.S. Central time on February 22. This is the last opportunity to put new entries in the 2020-21 VCMEC Online World Championships, so don't miss out!

Enjoy the issue, and may this New Year of 2021 be awesome for us all!

Unbridled Creativity: Sherry Cook McDonald

by Corky Visminas

Sherry was so taken with the idea that she dove wholeheartedly into customizing.

Starting with repaints, Sherry rapidly progressed to doing remaking as well. She painted with acrylics and used the boiling-water method to remake. The fine, silky hair she haired them with was frequently donated by her Cocker Spaniels. She also used hair from wigs, as well as from herself and sometimes even daughter Carri!

The model horse world was rocked this fall when Barbara Sharon (Fearn) Cook McDonald, known to most as Sherry, one of the brightest stars in our hobby's early days, passed away on Sept. 10. She is fondly remembered for her wonderfully detailed and highly sought-after customized model horses, both straight repaints as well as full customs with remaking, repainting and hairing.

She was born in 1942 and spent much of her life in and around the Dallas, Texas area. She graduated from Sunset High School in Dallas in 1959. In 1975 she married her second husband, Neil McDonald. Neil passed away in 2009; they had been married for 34 years at the time of his death. When they lived in the Dallas area (in the days before Dallas became the metropolis that it is today), the couple raised Arabians and Welsh ponies, and their mini farm included chickens, a couple of pigs, and Nubian goats. Sherry also raised Cocker Spaniels, and was part-owner of an influential Cocker from that time named Red Raider.

Her model horse heyday was from the early 1970s through the mid- to late 1980s. She was known for selling models through joint saleslists with longtime hobbyist Jo Maness.

Jo introduced Sherry to the model horse hobby in the early 1970s. They first met when Sherry was selling a half-Arabian mare on behalf of a friend, and Jo went to inspect the horse. Although Jo didn't purchase the mare, she and Sherry bonded over their mutual love of horses, and when Jo told Sherry about the model horse hobby, she was fascinated. Jo mentioned that she repainted and sold models herself, and

Although she did not attend live shows (she did not travel much, never flew, and didn't learn to drive until she was 30), Sherry was very active in photo showing. Once her models started gaining traction in the show ring, other collectors wanted to own them, and demand for them grew. Jo helped out by listing Sherry's repaints on her own saleslists alongside her own work. (The two artists each did their work independently--it was just listed on the same saleslists at the same time. There were no collaborations between them.)

Sherry's daughter Carri has fond memories of helping her mom stage photos of her models; they'd go outside and find a suitable spot, and Sherry would collect rocks and other in-scale items to add interest to the photos. Carri recalls her mom using a Yashica camera that got such heavy use, its leather case actually disintegrated!

In the late 1980s, Sherry drifted away from the model horse hobby, having gotten as much creative fulfillment from it as she could. Her restless creativity would not stay still for long, however.

Something not widely known among model horse hobbyists is that Sherry was a very talented flat artist as well. She'd begun painting in her school years, and showed such promise that several of her paintings were exhibited in a local business when she was a senior in high school! Intrigued with all aspects of Native American culture, she was inspired by such notable artists as Georgia O'Keeffe and R.C. Gorman. Sherry worked in watercolors, pastels and oils, and she often signed her paintings "Chachi Oshetik," a Native American name she gave herself which means "Daughter of the Rainbow." Her father, Thomas Houston Fearn, was also an artist, producing sensitively done pencil studies of scenes from India, where he'd been stationed during his service in World War II.

In fact, Sherry was a true Renaissance woman, with a restless creative spirit and a Carri Shubert shares a look at two of her mother Sherry Cook McDonald's most ambitious paintings, versions of "The Four Seasons." Sherry also painted the striking scene at lower left.

Sherry lived for almost the last two years. The tour of Sherry's studio included her reproductions of the lively painting "The Four Seasons" (featured as the cover and centerfold of the 1950s-era book "How to Draw Horses" by Walter Foster). The first version, a small color sketch, was done in 1959 when Sherry was a teenager; later in life she reproduced this colorful image as a huge oil painting!

Even more amazing were the dozen examples of Sherry's customized model horses, which had not seen the light of day in over 20 years! The selection included Breyer Traditional and Classic-scale models, Hartlands, Made-In-Japan chinns, and even a few repainted Hagen-Renakers. Looking over these models, Sherry's style can easily be seen, with the distinctive eyeliner eyes and soft, realistic paint jobs.

Another treasure we were privileged to view was a stack of Sherry's show photos, labeled "Originals by Sherry." We photographed each one, front and back, to add to the pool of knowledge about Sherry's customized models. Since she didn't sign her models, we hope these will help collectors identify work by Sherry that may be in their possession.

Sherry made her own tack as well, and Carri had many examples of it to show us: a set of stunning Hollywood-style Arabian regalia, English and Western saddles, delicate bridles, even Stablemate-sized tack! All painstakingly realistic, it was made in the mid- to late 1970s, before tack-making kits or supplies were readily available; some pieces include features such as stirrups made from twisted wire. It was an absolute treasure trove of vintage tack!

wide range of talents with which to indulge it. In addition to painting, she also did fabric arts (including sewing clothing with French smocking, a skill taught to her by her grandmother), ceramics, tole painting, cloisonne jewelry and, in her later years, "junk art" -- painting pieces of old magazine pages and junk mail and combining them into collages. In addition to all these, she was also an avid gardener and enjoyed home canning.

On Dec. 19, 2020, which would have been Sherry's 78th birthday, VCMEC staff were given unprecedented access to some of Sherry's model horses and artwork, courtesy of her daughter Carri, with whom Carri tells us that, toward the end of her mother's life, Sherry had wondered if she might have Asperger's syndrome. Sherry's intense focus, wide-ranging artistic abilities and restless creative nature were factors that led her to arrive at this self-diagnosis. Although it's impossible to know for sure, it may help explain some of the way Sherry approached her art.

As we contemplate life without her, it's painful to know that we'll never see a new customized model horse by Sherry Cook McDonald; the number of known models she worked on seems to be relatively small. Understandably, those who own customized models by Sherry are very reluctant to part with them! Adding the information from her show photos to VCMEC's database will hopefully help in bringing to light more of her work. She will be missed, but her legacy of customized model horses and other artwork--all created from her heart with her talented hands--will help us always remember her.

"Another loss of a hobby artist I greatly admired." --Laurel A. Haig

"I bought my first custom by Sherry in 1971, Pace's Hi Hopes [left]. He did really well in photo shows. He [and early 1970s models Midwest Tumbleweed, right, and Sycamore Scoj, upper right] are still with me, and I take them once in a while to shows if there is a vintage class. My first Sherry Cook custom has the dog hair mane and tail and it is still silky smooth and very pretty. Love my Sherry Cook McDonald pieces." --Lynn Martin Isenbarger

VCMEC would like to give our deepest thanks to Jean Derench, Jo Maness, and Carri Shubert for their assistance with this article.

Model hobbyists were saddened to learn of Sherry Cook McDonald's passing. Here are some of the memories and tributes that were shared:

"I judged many photo shows back in the mid- to late 1970s that had models painted by Sherry Cook...Loved all of Sherry's work!" --Janet Morris Bonney

"She was one of the greats. Cook, Maestas and Strowger were the trinity of the remakers of the 1970s." --Kate Cabot

"I fell in love with her work when I was starting in the hobby! I'd always sit there and go...I want this one...that one...they were all gorgeous! She was such a gracious woman and was always willing to answer any of my questions when I first started out in the hobby. I had a model repainted by her (the walking QH mare) that I used to photo show back in the day. She will be dearly missed." --Irene Lynne Conrad

"I saw her work in the first photo show I held and was smitten." --Colleen Headley

"I knew her by name, and have wanted a horse by her forever. There is going to be one heck of a live show in heaven." --Verna McCausland

"I was a huge fan of her work. I've always thought that her painting techniques were far ahead of her time." --Anita Poole

"Khali Shira, an R/H Hartland 7" Arab Stallion, was the first RRH model Judy [Pope] and I ever bought in the mid-1970s, and for a LOT of money (a whopping $30!--which on our budget at the time was considerable). But his gorgeous coloring and that regal eye just grabbed us! We photo-showed him in every class we could scrape together (even, I blush to admit, a pretty crude Native American costume--well, he is a pinto!), and he usually brought home some ribbons.

"Liz Bouras' Sherry Cook guy, Razzle Dazzle [right], was a

"My one and only Sherry Cook McDonald model is Strawberry Wine [left], created in 1973. I was fortunate enough to be able to add this girl to my collection this year. I don't believe that I ever met Sherry in person, but she was one of the 'big name old timers' when I first got started in the hobby in 1975." --Susan Stahl

"She was such an important part of the hobby. She will be missed." --Teresa Rogers

"Such a part of model horse history." --Sue Rowe

"Sherry was a great customizer in the 1970s. I remember a custom she did, a Traditional Thoroughbred mare in red roan with a real hair mane and tail. The hair looked to be human hair, or maybe from a wig. It was very cool! Another founding pillar of the hobby gone..." --Nala Saluki

"I too am an old-timer hobbyist, and she was a true foundation source for this hobby. May her spirit and model contributions live on." --Juanita Snyder

"Sherry was one of my absolute favorites from the early days." --Sandy Tomezik

I Remember Linda by Teresa Rogers

Linda Kelly and Teresa Rogers display some model horses from their collections

'80s. Linda was one of the founders of the Valley of the Sun ("ValSun") Model Horse Association in Phoenix, Arizona in 1976, along with her longtime friend and collector

Linda Myron (also known in the model horse hobby as Linda Kelly) of Galesburg, Illinois, passed away on October 13, 2020, after a long illness. Most readers of this publication won't have known her, but she and her generation of model horse enthusiasts are part of the reason we're all here in the hobby today. That's why I want to tell you a little about my friend and her customized model horses.

Linda Williamson was born in Galesburg in 1944. She got her first Breyer model horses when she was six years old--the original Proud Arabian Mare and Foal, from her parents. She and her father Chuck raised Morgan and half-Morgan horses. (The photo at upper right shows Linda on her half-Morgan gelding Sandy Hawk in 1966.)

Later, Linda moved to Arizona, where she was a significant member of the growing model horse community in the 1970s-

Karren Cassavant, Karen Pate, and myself. Not surprisingly, we all connected with one another through the beloved publication, the Model Horse Showers' Journal. (Linda Walter, the editor of the MHSJ, is still alive and well, thankfully!)

ValSun was known for its live shows, where hobbyists from out of state sometimes attended. (That was rare, back then!) We showed Hagen-Renakers in performance alongside Breyers and customized models, and I especially remember the fun, the camaraderie, the respect, and the friendship of the group's members. We promoted our major club activities through press releases to the Phoenix newspapers, and setting up displays at local tack swap meets, as Linda can be seen doing with Lisa Herndon in the mid-'70s photo at lower left.

After many years in Phoenix, Linda moved back to Galesburg, and eventually remarried. She continued to be relatively active in the hobby throughout the 1990s. Linda was not active in the hobby during the last several years, but she never stopped collecting model horses. Many horses in her collection were vintage custom pieces by some of the leading model horse artists of that day, including Nancy Strowger, Karren Cassavant, Kathleen Moody, Judy Renee Pope, Sue Daigle, Janice Brent Starr, Laura Hornick Behning, and others. She was also a friend of Arizona equine artist Hildred Goodwine.

Linda herself was also well respected for her model horse "repaints" as we called them back then--customs nowadays. Some of the pieces in her collection were her personal treasures and as such she did not sign them. When Linda did sign a custom model horse, it was usually with her lower case initials "lk" or "lkelly" in a round script.

These photos show each type of Linda's signatures on the sole of a hoof, with the date--in this example, (19)80--on another hoof.

Here are some examples of Linda's custom work:

Linda enjoyed adding details to original finish models with nice color and detail. Above are two Breyer Lady Phase models by Linda, in my own collection.

Finally, here's KM Chiara, a custom Breyer Proud Arabian Mare customized by Linda in the early 1980s. Linda originally sold the horse to Kay McCue; I acquired her from another collector, who had purchased her from Kay's estate. Look at that facial detail!

This is Austin City Limits, a stunning "partial repaint" of a Hagen-Renaker chestnut San Dimas Lippet Morgan stallion

Linda was also an equine artist and author of horse fiction and poetry. A kind and generous person, she will be greatly missed by her friends and family, but her legacy lives on through her model horses.

Two hobbyists in the Galesburg area, Marilou Mol and Linda Shawhan, partnered with Linda's family and took on the task of finding good new homes for the hundreds of models and other items from the Linda Myron estate, through the Linda Myron Collection Dispersal group on Facebook. This helps ensure that Linda's collection—original finish, vintage custom, and equine flat art—will end up in the

VCMEC Museum Thanks Donors

We're grateful to welcome two charming oldsters!

Sue Stahl has gifted us with Fanciful Fyre, a vintage CM Breyer Classic Arabian Stallion, and his vintage tack set.

"One of the things I kept an eye out for at BreyerFest 2019 was any vintage customs in need of rescue," Sue wrote. "I found this cutie in Linda Walters' room. It was done by her roommate Heidi Bright in 1978 or 1979.

"I had a chat with Heidi, and I'm glad I did. He's done in oils, and the lighter splotches that I thought were rubs are her attempt at the time of doing dapples. She said she remembers either stippling them in with a brush or sponging them on. Heidi informed me that he was haired with dog hair. The tack she made herself from scraps of fabric her mother had lying around. The reins are a shoelace, and the bit is made out of a paper clip. She does not remember if she ever named him or showed him. She was thrilled that he's getting a home with someone who appreciates him and not being played to death by some kid."

When Julia Nichols of Copperfox Model Horses brought some models to Triple Mountain Model Horses to purchase, and asked if anyone would be interested in a vintage CM Breyer Canterling Welsh Pony, "I said 'I know just the person,'" Eleada Towle of Triple Mountain related. "She had heard of your museum plans and was delighted, so she asked me to give her to you. She appears to be unsigned and Julia didn't have any history for her. I hope you can eventually find out and credit her artist. I know you enjoy a good mystery!" Indeed we do! Thanks so much to all!

Lost and Found

by Susan Stahl

The story of this model goes back to the mid-1980s. I was attending Model Horse Congress. For those too young to remember, this was THE live show. Live shows then were few and far between and were mostly small affairs. MHC was the chance to meet and socialize with hobbyists from all over the country and Canada. Run over four days, the competition was fierce. We would show all day and talk and horse trade all evening until the wee hours.

Marney Walerius was the hostess of the show. That year, she graciously allowed a bunch of us to tour her house and see her personal collection. I saw this model on her shelf and remember thinking how nice he was.

When Marney passed away in 1992, her collection was sold off. Signed customs sold quickly, but unsigned customs were passed over by buyers. When the dust settled from the sale, there were many unsigned customs left over. This fellow was one of them. Cheryl Monroe packed him up along with many others and took them home [to sell for Marney's family].

Fast forward to a live show years later. I spotted him on Cheryl's table, and she told me that he was a leftover from Marney's estate sale and was still for sale. I was able to add him to my collection. Being that he was unsigned, and nobody knew who had done him, I dubbed him "Marney's Legacy" and resigned myself to having to list him in my database as "by unknown artist."

Over the years, I put out some inquiries at various live shows and over the Internet, but none of them panned out. A lot of people thought that he could POSSIBLY be done by this or that artist, but there was no real consensus. In 2019, I decided to try again with a post to the Vintage Model-Horse-Custs Facebook group to see if someone might...just maybe...have knowledge of the artist. This time, I got a definitive answer.

Gretchen Haskett said she thought it looked like one of hers and, after some checking, went on to confirm that she had done him for Marney. To her knowledge, Marney never named him or showed him. She said the glass eyes dated it to... best guess...1984. Not only that, but she also found this photo in her basement!

Without any signature, if events hadn't lined up as they did, this fellow might well have been lost to the hobby. The good news is that he now won't be. We know his identity and story.

So please, if you do customs, sign and date your work. It will help make sure your customs don't disappear into oblivion!

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they had to say!

THE RAISULI

Rose grey Arabian stallion, CM by Beth Peart (remake) and Nancy Strowger (repaint/thread mane/tail) in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Colleen Headley writes, "About *The Raisuli...what else can be said when a dear friend bequeaths you a horse near and dear to her heart...Well, I can say that *The Raisuli has been a star of TV and newspaper. At a Valley of the Sun live show in Phoenix he caught the eye of a TV crew who were there to pick up on a local story for that evening's news. His owner, Ava Maureen Durbin, was a guest judge, but she had brought some examples of her tack for sale to sit upon Nancy Strowger's table. *The Raisuli was there in her black, silver and turquoise colored parade outfit looking just grand and he caught their eyes. The newspaper article is tucked away with keepsakes but I am told that Ava got to see her boy on the news that night!

"He is a precious thing and I never forget that."

IBN HOTEPE

Grey Crabbet-bred Arabian stallion, CM by Ava Durbin in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed

Sue Stahl writes, "Ibn Hotep - still beautiful at age 43! Created by Ava Durbin for the MARA Select Sale of 1977. I was outbid for him (I think the winning bidder paid the huge sum of $37 for him) in that auction. He was one of the top show horses in MARA. Over a decade later, I spotted him at a live show on someone's table, and he caught my eye.

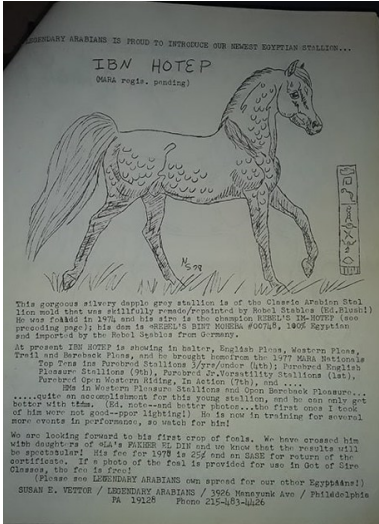

"Keep in mind that in 1977, I'd never actually seen the horse. The auction had written descriptions only...maybe in a few cases there was somebody's drawing of the model in question...but, for the most part, we were bidding to buy horses sight unseen. I may have lost the auction, but

I'd never forgotten him, and the model I was looking at fit the description I remembered. The owner said 'He's for sale,' so I picked him up and looked at his tag 'Ibn Hotep' and signed on the bottom of a hoof 'AMD.' The seller confirmed he was from the MARA Select Sale, and I bought him from her immediately. I couldn't believe I'd found him, and I was thrilled to finally have him in my hands.

"AND in 2019, I was able to find his stud ad from a 1978 issue of the Model Turf & Tassel, MARA's newsletter!"

BIRCHWOOD GEISHA BOY

Bay Hackney Horse gelding, CM by Beth Peart in 1977

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Workmanship

Beth Peart writes, "Gee, what can I add? I know! I recently uncovered a fun fact about Birchwood Geisha Boy. My memory of the late '70s and early '80s is admittedly fuzzy so I am always surprised when a forgotten fact emerges. I'm not sure when he acquired the name he has now, but back in the day when he debuted at Marney's Model Horse Congress he was actually called Birchwood Canadet. I had no recollection! I found this out when another shower shared results from Congress with me. I'm so happy he continues to be appreciated no matter what name he uses!"

BROTHER LOVE

Black leopard Appaloosa stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Lois Bennington writes, "Nancy Strowger did a wonderful job on him, transforming him into the likeness of a picture I sent to her. I'm delighted that he continues to do well in all of these vintage shows. He was the first model that I sent away to have repainted. I must have done something right. Nancy sure did!"

TULYARAM

Chestnut Arabian stallion, CM by Nance Feldman in the mid-1970s

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Nance Feldman writes, "I am so thrilled that Tulyaram did well!"

"He is one of my first customs. His name and inspiration came from an old painting of horse Tuljaram, probably from a book, depicted as a chestnut with four white stockings.

"Tulyaram was one of my top show horses in the '70s. His success was given a real leg up due to the camera skills and tack of Marney J. Walerius. After seeing an ad by Marney offering photo services, Tulyaram was shipped off and duly returned with amazing close-up photos for Halter as well as English and Western pleasure. I am still hunting and hoping for those negatives... Thank you to the entire VCMEC crew for this opportunity to show him again!"

ARAHAEEL

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Jason Ross in 1986

1980s Overall Champion Workmanship and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Lois Bennington writes, "I re-homed Arahael from the estate of Kay McCue. The first time I saw him on the sales table, he blew me away. The quality of horses that Kay collected was amazing but Arahael stood out. The bidding was competitive but, in the end, he just had to come home with me. Thank you judges for seeing what I saw in him!"

DESERT MEDALLION

Dun Quarter Horse stallion, CM by Carol Williams in 1988

1980s Overall Champion Breed

Regine Nikolaidis writes, "Ooooooh, so Desert Medallion will be doing a Victory Lap? How wonderful, as I absolutely ADORE Carol's old CM models! <3

"Unfortunately I don't know very much about him. I first fell in love with him when I browsed Carol's horses in the Model Horse Gallery...hmmm...must have been in the '90s? Of course, at that time her models were firmly in the 'to be admired from far far away' category! Never could I have imagined that a few would find their way over to Germany, let alone that some would actually end up in my model horse herd...I'm still amazed every time I look at those lovely beauties. :-)

"I don't know the time or way he took, but finally Desert Medallion landed in the hands of my best friend Juliane [Garstka]. We've been friends for what feels like forever, share the love of old CM western horses and both treasure Carol's old horses. In 2018 I got lucky and she agreed to let Desert Medallion move south to my humble model horse herd! You can imagine that I nearly held my breath until he arrived safe and sound...I think my happy dance could be heard all the way to Hamburg! ggg

"Not much information, but maybe this little tale will give you a bit to print with the picture."

MATT HOUSTON

Bay Thoroughbred stallion, CM by Jamie Coughlin in the 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Color

Jamie Coughlin writes, "Oh cool! I did two or three different Matts before I finally was satisfied. He was a champion show horse in all those guises, but the final one, he really won all over in large photo shows and series. With that same picture, it's the only one (and one of the other side) I ever took of him!

"I pulled him out a few years ago and he had just one small separation on a forearm. He has been packed up (along with most of my horses) since the hurricane in 2018. I finally got my new shelves and they are coming together although I still have 2 big ones and a small one to do, it is hard to find people to do small jobs. Those that can have to squeeze them in on odd days. Soon though he will be back on the shelves and I will get around to fixing him and getting new pictures.

"Of course he was named for the TV show of the early '80s. I was a MASSIVE fan. So of course his model had to be as perfect as possible! He was also a good racehorse and racing sire."

SWEET JANE

Bay Arabian mare, CM by Carol Williams in 1989

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Laura Doll writes, "I'm thrilled for the spoiler that my girl did good! :) I love the whole vintage revival--takes me back to some fun and happy days. As for fun facts on Sweet Jane...I bought her sight unseen from one of Carol's production sale lists. It was the last or one of the last sales she did like that of custom models because she was moving on to producing her own sculptures--specifically the [Rio Rondo] QHS-1 at that time.

"I guess the other thing is her name, which is of course from the Velvet Underground song. I love the original recording, plus one of my favorite local bands back in the day did an amazing cover of it. I named a lot of my horses for bands or songs. I did have some people tell me it wasn't an appropriate name for an Arabian, but I didn't really care! Ha! I like it! And she's my horse!"

MON'NAFA RANI

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) in the late 1980s

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge writes, "For me it started around 1986, an issue of Just About Horses containing mesmerizing pictures of repainted/remade Breyer models, set me on the path to importing my first custom Breyers. Little did I know that thousands of miles away in America, another collector would be inspired by the very same issue of JAH, and be transforming her own Breyer models.

"Sarah Minkiewicz created her first body of work in 1988, including the dark dapple grey mare Mon'nafa Rani, exported to me in 1989. I only recently learned that Sarah's holy grail was a Nancy Strowger repaint that was featured in the very issue of JAH I just mentioned! That mare, Mon'eta El Nefous, actually inspired the creation of Mon'nafa Rani--my OWN holy grail!

"Rani is simply remarkable for her era. I feel she is timeless. Here at VCMEC she has had the honor of being highly awarded and also appearing in Victory Lap multiple times. (I recommend vintage enthusiasts check out previous issues of the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View, you might just happen to come across a bit more about Rani along the way.)

"Rani and I send our thanks and best wishes from Melbourne, Australia."

AMANTUS VS

Brown Trakehner stallion, CM by Diane Capwell in the early 1990s

1990s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Sophie Nordstrom writes, "I think I have already told 'everything' about Amantus, but I'll try and write something.

"I bought Amantus VS in the beginning of 2017. He came from Germany and I've wanted him for years. I asked his former owner if I could keep his name and she agreed to that.

"When he arrived I thought it would be nice to pedigree him as I like that part of the hobby and I have pedigreed my horses since late 1980s. Amantus' father is a multi-champion Breyer Trakehner JAH SR OF and they sit next to each other on the shelf. I wonder what they chat about, but I do think his father is proud of his son."

1990s Overall Champion Color

Check out what Sue Sudekum had to say about her sharp stallion in the August 2016 issue's Victory Lap!

RM NUCLEAR WINTER

Grey Shire mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1991

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Kirsten Wellman writes, "RM Nuclear Winter was a lucky late-night eBay find about 15 years ago. As much as I had always wanted a Julie Froelich horse, I never dreamed I'd be able to find or afford one, let alone a piece as well known as Nuclear Winter.

"She was customized from a Breyer Clydesdale Mare and apparently originally just balanced on her two feet. A previous owner added the little disks to stabilize her. Her leg feathering is actually hair from one of Julie's dogs. So creative!

"Nuclear Winter is incredibly well-preserved and has always shown very well for me, even against modern customs. Julie was so ahead of her time!"

GOSSAMER WINGS

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz (-Breunig) in 1993

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Kirsten Wellman writes, "Unfortunately, I don't really have anything new to tell you about Gossamer Wings that hasn't already been published in the VCMEC newsletters. I haven't had a chance to live show her in a while (of course), but she remains a consistent winner for me in photo shows. Pretty impressive for a 30-year-old custom! It just goes to show how timeless Sarah's artistry is. :)"

IN THE DARK

Bay Thoroughbred stallion, CM by Judy Renee Pope in 1992

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Shannon Rodgers writes, "He is an, ahem, anatomically correct stallion with minimal sabino markings, accepted in Thoroughbreds, from the Breyer Classic Kelso. Just fabulous Judy Renee technique!

"I coveted him while he was owned and shown by my friend Aimee Ziller, and when she got out of the hobby to further pursue her Friesian Sporthorses, I obtained boxes of ephemera and photos while her collection was slowly auctioned off on eBay by a third party. Many minutes of auction-watching were spent to obtain the couple pieces that were very special to me, and I still have handwritten letters, saleslists, and hobby newsletters from the '80s--especially her communications with Judy [Renee Pope] and Paula [O'Keefe].

"He is a handsome dude with his braids and deep dapples. His rich dark bay shines in different lighting, almost chameleon-like, and he has such a striking face.

"I try to collect various artists and collaborations, so this was the sole JRP piece for my stable. He is signed and dated."
