

The Ian M Hassett Foundation is pleased to partner with The Sauce Pot recording studio located in San Luis Obispo (<http://saucepotstudios.com>), to offer one (1) fully produced song (includes recording studio time and post-production by professional sound engineers). This opportunity is being offered to local high school or college music students and is open to instrumentalists or singers, soloists or groups, performing any music genre. Recording is limited to one song, so that the engineering staff have ample time to work with you to perfect your recording.

To apply, please fill out the Application below and return it by December 1st, 2019. Include a sample demo, either via audio or video of the song you'd like to record. If you have a digital link, please send it to info@ianmhassett.com. We anticipate a large response to this offer. For that reason it is to your advantage to provide the highest quality demo recording possible. Judging will take into consideration originality and quality of your performance. If you have any questions, please contact us at info@ianmhassett.com or 805.878.1334.

The winner will receive a fully produced song in .wav and/or MP3 format. It will be up to the winner and The Sauce Pot to schedule a mutually agreeable date for the recording session.
