Submission Guidelines

A powerful community leader, Cesar Chavez shaped history when he co-founded the National Farm Workers Association, later known as the United Farm Workers, with Dolores Huerta. Throughout his life, Cesar engaged with his community, helping people find their voice and improve their daily lives.

Community engagement is important to ensure access to local services and activities, as well as allow community members to contribute meaningfully to those services and activities. This scholarship will be awarded to two students who demonstrate a sense of commitment and engagement to the community and a strong desire to continue serving the community.

Answer the following questions accordingly:

1. Tell us who you are and how this scholarship will help your continuing education goals. 500 words or less.
2. How have you demonstrated a sense of community engagement to the city of Phoenix, if applicable, or how do you plan to do so while attending college? 500 words or less.

Submissions must be submitted electronically with a copy of your high school transcript by Monday, March 2, as a PDF with Arial, 12-point font, to phx.hispanic.network@phoenix.gov, with a subject line:
