Where Opportunity Meets Talent

This report compares a specific job benchmark to the results of one to five talent reports. Use the following guidelines to effectively interpret the results.

Interpretation Guidelines

When you compare a person to a specific job benchmark, you must ask yourself some very important questions with regard to the top three motivators and the top three behaviors. The answers to these questions will maximize the use of this report:

Driving Forces Hierarchy

- How will a person feel if they have to spend eight hours a day in an activity that does not reward their passion?
- How will a person feel if he/she is misaligned with the rewards of the job?

Behavioral Traits

- How will a person feel about being required to make a major behavioral change, and how will that affect productivity?

Additional Consideration

- How are other people in the same job performing based on the results of their TTI Talent Insights® Talent Report?

Introduction

Continued

This comparison report is based on the hierarchy of the job benchmark. The report uses raw numbers generated from the job and talent scoring. The job may call for something to be very important; however, people rarely bring perfection and complete mastery to any job. The job could call for the person to be a perfect 10; however, do not exclude people from consideration based solely on the gap(s) between the job benchmark and their talent score.

If a person is poor in an area that the job benchmark has identified as "very important," you must ask the difficult questions to determine if that would keep a person from achieving and maintaining superior performance.

Note: THE ORDER IN WHICH A PERSON'S NAME APPEARS IS NOT BASED ON THE PERSON'S MATCH TO THE JOB. THE ORDER IS BASED SOLELY ON THE ORDER IN WHICH PERSONAL REPORTS WERE SELECTED BY THE ORIGINATOR OF THIS REPORT.

Introduction

Driving Forces Hierarchy (12 Areas)

This section clearly identifies the rewards the job may provide. More specifically it identifies sources of motivation for the individual performing the job. It clarifies what is necessary for superior performance and engagement on the job.

Behavioral Hierarchy (12 Areas)

This section provides the behavioral traits demanded by the job and compares the talent for each trait. The higher the ranking, the more important the behavioral trait will be to the job for stress reduction and superior performance.

Note: Sections are presented on a 0-10 point scale to clearly illustrate the job benchmark and corresponding results of the individual personal report(s).

Driving Forces Feedback

This section provides a brief description of the Primary Driving Forces in this position and expands on the fact that every job in every organization is unique. Superior performance requires an alignment between the individual's driving forces and the rewards the job can provide.

Behavioral Feedback
