Valerie Libasci grew up in The Bronx surrounded by a large extended family. Humor was a common trait. She became a mom, stepmom, and grandmother, and with her husband loved going to local comedy clubs.

After retiring, Valerie signed up for Classes at Stand Up University at Brokerage Comedy Club in Bellmore, Long Island, thinking it would be fun to meet like-minded people. For graduation, she performed in front of a paying audience.

The rest is now history. Valerie performs in libraries, houses of worship, restaurants, comedy clubs, gated communities, senior centers, and a variety of fund raisers.
