Song: Gift of Love TUMC Bell Choir

Opening Prayer : Spirit of God, move among us and free us to love and serve you and all people. Refresh our spirits, that we may not be weary in seeking your ways. Whisper to us in a still small voice, show us what you have for us to do. Guide us to others with whom we may share the labors of peace and justice, through the grace of God in Christ Jesus.

Receiving your forgiveness, we are enabled to forgive others Rusting in your great love, may we persist in prayer, and worship you. May we always be ready to receive your gifts. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Sermon Rev. Amy Overton-Harris

I Believe

Living in self-isolation,
an unprecedented time,
Stuck at home, we seek to function
in an altered paradigm.

Craving freedom to be social with our family and friends, Fearing for a safe tomorrow,
wond'ring when this plight might end.

I believe we will get through this
and, in the end, will stronger be;
Maybe then this world will honor
all our shared humanity.

I believe there's nothing stronger than the force of love and hope;
Fear and hatred lose their power
when we join our hearts to cope.

I believe.

Life has changed within a moment,
leaving all to bend or break,
Claiming lives and spreading chaos,
this is all so hard to take.

We must isolate for others,
those who may not be as strong,
To contain this viral warfare and our way of life prolong.

We're a planet tied together,
by a virus, swift and sure,
So in joint collaboration
let us race to find a cure.

Though the days seem bleak and lonely,
life lived 'neath a threat and veil;
Brothers, sisters claim the promise of God's love which never fails.

Though these times are hard
and the way unsure,
Let our faith be strong
and our peace endure;
Let us hold our ground
and in God rejoice.
Though apart, let us now
raise a blended voice.

I believe we will get through this
and, in the end, will stronger be;
Maybe then a world united can become reality.

I believe the sun's still shining on mankind with warmth and love
And our hope and our tomorrow are secure in God above.

I believe.
