Scott & Grace Bealer

Scott and Grace Bealer of Minersville have been chosen to be the Grand Marshal's at the Beaver County Fair for 2020. They are excited for this opportunity as they have always loved and supported the Beaver County Fair. Scott Bealer is the Son of Alfred and Beverly Bealer of Milford. Grace is the Daughter of Fay and Betty Marshall of Minersville. Scott and Grace are the proud parents of 5 children, Anthony Bealer (Minersville), Jared and Cherstie Woolf (Minersville), Jeremy and Sarah Martin (Cedar City), Sam and Ali Fay Esmeier (Las Vegas) & Truce and Alayna Hunt (Las Vegas). They are even more excited to claim their 14 beautiful and handsome grandchildren, Tommy, Henry, George, Lizzie, Archie, Hannah & Peter Woolf, Brent, Jack, David and Anndi Martin, Corbett & Marshall Esmeier & Beau Hunt.

Scott and Grace have always been a part of the fair in one way or another, whether they were working at the fair or just attending it is always something they have made an important part of their lives. Scott and Grace have spent many days serving and helping their community in one capacity or another and instilling in their children a sense of community pride and involvement. Scott retired after almost 45 years of banking on May 17, 2019. Grace retired right along with Scott from her many years of working with children in the 4-H program and the After School Achievement program. Together they are enjoying retirement as they keep themselves busy in their yard care and helping and supporting their children and grandchildren. With Grace working many years in the 4-H program and Scott and Grace helping judge other fairs it is still a standing joke in their family that whatever you do needs to be fair quality, whether it is baking cookies, growing garden produce or sewing a quilt, if you are going to do it make it fair quality and a blue ribbon is the only option! When they were asked to serve as Grand Marshal's Scott hesitated a moment and jokingly wondered out loud if he was "fair quality" Grace reassured him he was.

When their children were young the fair was considered one of the biggest holidays of the year. They wanted to be involved in everything and sometimes Grace wondered how she would do it as her garden was also always producing at the same time. So she made it work, kids and fair events during the day and bottling produce all night. Scott and Grace believe that hard work can make dreams come true and you can see that in the different capacities in which they have served, they get in, get to work and get the job done. Going to and supporting the fair runs deep in their heritage as Grace's mother Betty Marshall along with Grant Esplin and Freida Wood started the very first Beaver County Fair. It is always hard to pick a favorite part of the fair but Grace said that the exhibits are her favorite part as she loves to see people create beautiful things and put their talents to work, Scott said his favorite part was being involved with the livestock and horse shows his children and grandchildren have participated in.

When it comes to Scott and Grace's "Fair Necessities" If you can bring everything but the kitchen sink and be involved in every event possible and go home Saturday night so tired you could sleep for a week you have done it right at the Beaver County Fair. Scott and Grace would like to thank the Fair Committee for the opportunity to serve as the Grand Marshal's this year.
