

Kathleen Mary Maliszewski (Redmond, Boguchi), 69, of Lewiston, Idaho, (formerly of Bad Axe and Sterling Heights), passed away peacefully Sunday, Aug. 10, 2014, with family at her bedside.

'Cookie' as she was nicknamed by her father as an infant, was born Feb. 25, 1945, in Detroit, to the late Hayward and Angeline (Guziejewski) Redmond.

She worked and retired after many years with Farmer Jack (Bordman Foods) in Bad Axe. She loved reading, knitting, crocheting, puzzles, gardening, canning, and being with her family.

She was the loving mother to Kevin (Sharon Young) Maliszewski of Imlay City; beloved 'Busha' to Scott (Michele) Maliszewski of Lenox, Kyle (U.S. Navy), Korey (U. S. Marine Corps), and Kacy (U. S. Navy) Maliszewski, 'great Busha' to Haley and Ashley Maliszewski. She also is survived by her sisters, Patricia (Raymond) Rooper of Lewiston, Idaho, Janet Taylor of Orofino, Idaho; and brother, James (Kathy) Redmond of Troy. She was 'Auntie Cookie' to many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews who she was like a second mother to.

She was preceded in death by her parents; twin infant sons; and brother, Daniel Redmond.

Special thanks to family and close friends who always were there to lend a helping hand. Your dedication and love are appreciated.

Cremation has taken place, entrusted to Vassar-Rawls Funeral Home in Lewiston, Idaho. Interment of her ashes will take place in Clinton Township when her military serving grandchildren are home together.

A private memorial was conducted in Lewiston, Idaho, and one will be conducted at a later date in Michigan.
