A Note from Rick: I wish I had some great words of wisdom about the markets this week, but they are really unchanged again. We had a good turnout at the feeder sale. We had several groups of number one quality heifers and steers, and I thought they sold very well for today's market. Lavern and Mabel Yoder are retiring from the Draft Horse Committee this year after 40 years of commitment. We appreciate their efforts and wish them health and happiness in their retirement. We are excited to announce that Freeman and Rose Mary Yoder will be joining Devon and Nettie Bontrager on the committee. We also want to welcome Brian and Sherry Weitzel to the TLA Family. Brian will be taking over as our auctioneer and Sherry will be working in the office. We have many things to be thankful for this Thanksgiving season. We are looking forward to spending time with family and friends and the Thanksgiving feast. I'm also looking forward to the down time when the women head shopping and the men head to the woods. Gobble... gobble....gobble.....

A Note from Andrea: You're welcome for the picture! Ha ha

They'll be there as fast as they can!
