Sunday Meditation

It's a testimony of the dignity of our calling that those noble creatures, the angels, are chiefly occupied with our care and safety. "Are they not all ministering spirits, sent out to render service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation" (Heb. 1:14)? How often have they rendered us secret service, lifted us up on their hands lest we "dash our foot against a stone" (Ps. 91:12); and we never knew it? They're deeply interested in our well-being. They rejoice when backsliders are restored (Luke 15:10). At death they take our souls to Paradise (Luke 16:22). How many times, I wonder, if God had opened our eyes, would we have seen the angel encamped around us (Ps. 34:7), the chariots of fire surrounding us (II Kings 6:17)? Have we "entertained angels without knowing it" (Heb. 13:2)? And someday we'll judge these wonderful creatures (I Cor. 6:3). How amazing is that? All for Jesus, Richard
