

Commercial Use Fees Houdini Collections

The History Museum at the Castle is a private non-profit organization serving the general public. All fees are firm and apply equally to subsequent editions. All reproduction and commercial uses of images from the Museum or Sidney H. Radner Collection must be appropriately credited and copies of the product deposited with the Museum. The History Museum charges a $35 Digital Reproduction Fee to process each image.

Commercial Use Fees Per Image

Print Media

Books, magazines, works of reference, advertisements including use in offices/businesses

- ½ page or less $125
- Full page $200
- Cover or jacket $275
- Advertisements $500

Broadcast and Digital Media

Television, videos, films, websites, apps, and other digital sources

- Single use of image $500

All other uses of the History Museum's Houdini collections must be negotiated on an individual basis.