The Story of Zacchaeus
By Paul Dallgas-Frey
Luke 19:1-10

There are two things...

...you should know about Zacchaeus.

Zacchaeus was a little man.

And Zacchaeus was a rich man.

And nobody liked him very much.

Okay, that's three things.

Nobody liked Zacchaeus...

Zacchaeus lived in a town called Jericho a long time ago. You might remember Jericho, if you heard the story about the walls that came tumbling down when the trumpets blew. But that was way before Zacchaeus's time.

One bright, sunny day...

...Zacchaeus looked down the dirt road that came into Jericho and he saw a crowd of people coming his way.

Back then, everybody was talking about a guy named Jesus. Everywhere Jesus went, people who were sick got better, people who couldn't walk could walk again, people who were blind could see again. Jesus was a pretty amazing guy! And everybody wanted to see just who this Jesus guy was. Including Zacchaeus.

The only trouble was, everywhere Jesus went there were always crowds of people all around him - and remember, Zacchaeus was a little man. He knew that he'd never be able to see over a great crowd of people.

Zacchaeus ran up to the edge of the crowd and stood on his tiptoes to see what the big deal was.

But all he could see were the backs of people's heads.

He tried jumping up and down. He bounced from one side and then to the other. But still he couldn't see.

But then, on one lucky bounce, he saw the man at the center of the crowd. It was Jesus!

Zacchaeus tried to push his way through the crowd, but everyone wanted to see Jesus, and they wouldn't let him through.

What could he do? He wanted to see Jesus too!

Then Zacchaeus turned around and saw a sycamore tree growing right beside the road Jesus was walking along.

Zacchaeus had an idea!

He ran on ahead and climbed up the sycamore tree. He didn't care if he looked silly or not. He wanted to see Jesus!

Sure enough, Jesus stopped right under the sycamore tree. He looked up, and there was Zacchaeus peeking through the branches.
