Many Thanks given to everyone in the Alamogordo community who have contributed to this Scholarship Fund and who supported our efforts to save Jennifer.

Love to our family and friends who Loved Jennie!

JENNIFER E. TARNOW

NOVEMBER 15, 1981 – FEBRUARY 21, 2000

Jennifer Tarnow was born on November 15th 1981 and passed away on February 21st 2000. Jennifer was the daughter of Dorothy Engle Tarnow and David Tarnow, a sister to Joshua Martin, and granddaughter of Roger and Pat Engle. Although Jennifer was a little shy when you first met her, she had a very sweet, kind and generous heart. Jennifer was involved in many different humanitarian programs. She was a member of Teens Leading the Community (TLC), Chaparral Junior High School Orchestra and Alamogordo High School Future Homemakers Association. She also participated in Habitat for Humanity. Jennifer loved life and had numerous friends that surrounded her daily. She expressed her love of life by the way her eyes sparkled when she spoke, by her laughter, the way she would give of herself unselfishly, and by her sweet and gentle soul. Jennifer wanted nothing more in the world than to be able to "breathe" freely (be free of Cystic Fibrosis) and secondly, to graduate from Alamogordo High School along with her friends and head off to college! She almost made it to graduation! Dorothy, her mother devoted her life to Jennifer and made one of Jennifer's dreams come true. Dorothy attended Jennifer's graduation and walked the line to receive Jennifer's high school diploma in May 2000. Jennifer touched many, many people in the Alamogordo community where she was born and raised. She never gave up, even at the end of her sweet, fragile life. Her legacy should and will always be remembered; in one way, through this memorial scholarship. Jennifer will live forever in the hearts of her family and friends.

NOTICE TO STUDENT:

You may be able to reduce your federal income tax liability by claiming a Hope or Lifetime Learning Education Tax Credit or Higher Education Tuition and Fees Deduction. These tax benefits apply to the tuition and related expenses (1) paid by you or on your behalf. This information may be of use to you in calculating the amount of the tax credit or deduction you may be eligible to claim, but your personal financial records serve as the official supporting documentation for your federal income tax return. Note: To claim a Hope or Lifetime Learning Tax Credit, IRS Form 8863 is required. (Additional detail is available at www.1098-T.com)

If you are claimed as a dependent on another person's tax return, please give this notice to that person.

Please contact the Internal Revenue Service at 1-800-829-1040 or your personal tax advisor for further information relating to your eligibility for and/or calculation of these tax benefits.

- (1) Qualified Tuition and Related Expenses: The expenses must be required by and paid to the educational institution for enrollment purposes. They include tuition and certain fees; they do not include room and board, athletics (unless part of the student's degree program), insurance, equipment, transportation, or other similar personal living expenses.
- (2) Important information regarding "Scholarships and Grants": Some portion of your scholarship and grants may be subject to income tax. Please consult with the IRS or your tax advisor to determine the taxability of your scholarships and grants and how such amounts may affect the amount of your education tax credit or deduction. For additional information on these issues, please reference IRS Notice 97-60, IRS Publication 520-Scholarships and Fellowships, and IRS Publication 970-Tax Benefits for Higher Education.
