

My name is Negin and I have been an educator for about 5 years. I have a diploma and degree in Early Childhood Education. I love working with children because no two days are the same. I love the idea of being able to support children during important stages of development and being someone they can count on. I enjoy doing arts and crafts, music and movement and reading with the kids!