Exhibition Registration

As part of the Maryland Association of Social Services Boards (MASSB) efforts to provide its members and partners with best practices in the areas of quality social service provision, MASSB is hosting a conference Expo to showcase the work of organizations/companies who provide programming, services and other supports to families in need and the agencies who serve those families. In addition, the MASSB Expo is an opportunity for local Departments of Social Services and Advisory Boards to share best practices and fund-raising ideas.

If you are interested in being an Exhibitor, please complete the following and submit it via e-mail to:
Shirley Schreffler at shirley.schreffler@maryland.gov by October 16, 2017.

Once your exposition registration is received, you will be contacted with details for submitting the Exhibitor fee.
