

Middlesex County
District Attorney's Office

Assistant District Attorney Megan Fitzgerald

Parents play an important role in keeping children safe, especially during this critical time of year. Know the state's Social Host Liability Laws and conversations you can have with your teen about prom & graduation safety.

Summer Send Off

Family Conversations for a Safe Prom & Grad Season

Tuesday, May 10, 2016

7:00 PM – 9:00 PM

Ashland High School Auditorium

Improbable Players

"I'll Never Do That"

Students & adults will both enjoy this original performance depicting the roller coaster of substance use. Witness mostly humorous, but also thought-provoking scenes about a family torn apart by substance abuse - how they are all affected - and how they all deal with it.

All are welcome to attend this special Community Programming event.

*We especially encourage
Ashland High School
Juniors & Seniors and their parents/guardians to join us for an evening dedicated to celebrating safe choices during prom & senior week.*

JUST ADDED ...

Chief Craig Davis

Ashland Police Department

Speaking about Social Host Liability in our own community!

Social Host Liability Laws

*A brief discussion presented by the Middlesex County
DA's Office on what every parent needs to know.*

Educational Theater

Performance and Q&A

Featuring Improbable Players – dedicated to educating the public about addiction and recovery through dramatic performances and theater workshops.

FREE RAFFLE! EXCITING PRIZES!

- 1 prom ticket
- 1 senior week ticket
- 10 priority seating passes for graduation
- 2 priority parking spaces at graduation
- 1 free parking pass per term (2016-17 school year)
- 1 VIP parking spot per term (2016-17 school year)

*There is no cost for the raffle. Attendance entitles you to a ticket.
You must be present to win.*

Presented by:

The Decisions at Every Turn Coalition &
Ashland High School

