A MESSAGE FROM WALK #204 LAY DIRECTOR

The verse from Luke 24:31 (KJV) says, “And their eyes were opened and they knew Him.” After reading this verse, I reflected on the time when the eyes of my heart were opened, and I came to know and accept Jesus as my Lord and Savior in August 1980. During the last forty years of my spiritual journey, the Holy Spirit has revealed how God had blessed me, and was blessing me through me being obedient and serving Him.

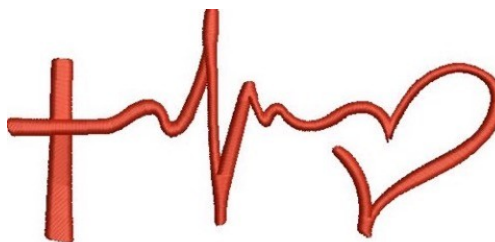

Early in my journey, many times I struggled with being obedient as I would find excuses to say no or maybe next time as I felt I was not equipped. Then I would be reminded that sometimes God does not call the equipped but equips who He calls. I began my journey as a shy, introverted, Christian with limited knowledge of the Bible. My fears of praying out loud, teaching, or speaking to a group, were controlling my being obedient to God.

To go along with learning that God equips those He calls, one main constant I have experienced is God’s timing is always perfect. Mark 1:15 (KJV) says, “The time (KAIROS) is fulfilled and the kingdom of God is at hand.” God answers prayers in His time. God led me to Bible studies, different ministry opportunities, conferences, and retreats when He wanted me to grow spiritually.

One of those retreats was the Walk to Emmaus (#61) in October 2003. As my Emmaus Walk journey (#204) approaches its completion, I faithfully wait for the Holy Spirit to open my eyes and the eyes of the men of Walk #204 for what’s next in God’s perfectly timed plan.

Decolores!

A MESSAGE FROM WALK #204 SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR

“This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.”

Psalm 118:24

This is one of my favorite passages in the Bible and one that I try to live by each and every day. We have so much to be thankful for and some many things to rejoice about. One of those things is the Walk to Emmaus .

I rejoice in this opportunity to serve as the Spiritual Director of Walk #204. I rejoice in the wonderful team that God has put together for this walk. I rejoice as I remember my own walk over twenty years ago. I rejoice in all of my Fourth Days and all the opportunities I have had to serve on Emmaus Walks, Emmaus Steering Committees, Emmaus Boards, and two International Walks in Estonia and Russia.

I know that we always say this walk is the best walk ever, but I think it is wonderful how God makes each walk unique and inspiring in its own way. I rejoice that God moves in wonderful and mysterious ways on every walk. I rejoice when I think about what God is going to do on Walk #204. We cannot even imagine what He is going to do but it will be wonderful and far beyond what we can think or imagine.

Pray with me for this Walk and the pilgrims of Walk #204. Pray for our Lay Director, Glenn Kinard. Pray for all of those in the conference room, in support, behind the scenes, sponsors, and everyone involved in some way. May God’s Spirit move in marvelous ways and touch our hearts with the power of His presence.

De Colores,
Neil Epler
