

Bio – Laura Turner Board Member, Volunteer

Laura has been attending events at the Center for several years and has been a volunteer for the Center's semi-annual indoor yard, craft and bake sales. Laura also has experience as a volunteer from the Garden Club at the Tri-State Hospital in Clarkston, WA.

Laura has been retired from a career in real estate for several years, having worked for Roy J. White Real Estate, Park View Real Estate and Town & Country Real Estate.

Laura graduated from St Maries High School in St. Maries, Idaho and lives in Lewiston Idaho.

Laura's hobbies are reading, interacting with her family and having coffee and senior meals with fellow attendees at the meal programs at the Center. She maintains her own home and joined the Center's Board in October 2019.