Twelve Sunday in the Ordinary Time

The end of June does not end the devotion to the Sacred Heart. The devotion to the Sacred Heart is a whole life long for humankind. In the Gospel today, Jesus emphasizes that we are loved by the Father “the sparrows are worth a small coin, yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge.” We were created, redeemed and constantly are sanctified by the Trinity. “We are worth more than many sparrows,” Jesus said clearly in the Gospel. It is because we were given the dignity of being created in the image & likeness of God, we are to give back to God what we owe Him by our life & good work, especially our devotion to the Sacred Heart. Some of the suggestions for the devotion to the Sacred Heart are praying the Litany of the Sacred Heart, praying the Divine Mercy, and receiving Sacraments as well as serving other members of the Church.

We want to express our gratitude to all volunteers who helped with Vacation Bible School this past week. The children had great moments and were blessed while learning about God, playing games and doing crafts. We especially want to thank all who came to prepare, decorate, set up, help in the kitchen, lead the sessions and everything. May God reward you & your family abundantly. We will see you at 2024 VBS here at St. Pius X Parish.

St. Pius X Holy Land Pilgrimage Sept. 20-29, 2024

After years of hearing the Gospels proclaimed at Mass, after years of proclaiming the Creed and partaking the Body and Blood of Christ at Mass, imagine hearing those Gospels proclaimed, celebrating mass, and receiving the Body and Blood of Christ in the very places where Jesus was born, was baptized, and where he ministered, taught, healed, suffered, died and rose from the dead. On this Catholic Pilgrimage to the Holy Land, you will visit all of these sacred places and more. We will celebrate mass in Bethlehem, on the Mount of Beatitudes, Jerusalem's Garden of Gethsemane, and the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and in the small village where Mary visited Elizabeth and John the Baptist was born.

Our 10-day pilgrimage includes first-class hotels, international flights, overseas airport transfers, breakfast and dinner daily, deluxe motor-coaches, professional guides, all entry fees, and most gratuities.

If you would like to learn more, please contact Shelly Maffia at 812-719-0452 or shellymaffia@yahoo.com.

St.
Benedict's

The St. Benedict Shelter Ministry at St. Pius X are in need of more shift volunteers to help serve on the three shifts on the third Thursday and Friday of each month. The shifts are 8 pm – 12 am, 12 am – 4 am and 4 am – 8 am.

Each shift has two volunteers. This is a rewarding ministry that the residents at St. Benedict's Shelter very much appreciate.

Please prayerfully consider signing up for this ministry.

We currently have nine shift volunteers.

With two teams, you will only have to serve once every other month, and possibly not that often, depending on the number of volunteers. Thanks for your prayerful consideration.

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMITTEE

Ven. Pierre Toussaint

Venerable Pierre Toussaint was born into slavery in 1766 in what is now Haiti and raised as a Catholic. He and his sister, Rosalie, were brought to New York City by their enslavers, the Bérard family, originally of French descent, in 1787 as they fled unrest in Haiti.

Upon arrival in New York, Pierre was set up to apprentice to one of New York's leading hairdressers. Pierre learned quickly and started doing the hair of rich women all over New York. When Jean Bérard later died, Pierre was already in a position to support himself and Bérard's widow with the earnings he made from his hairdressing work. He voluntarily took on support of her until she remarried. Pierre was eventually able to purchase the freedom of his sister Rosalie and Pierre was freed by his enslavers in 1807.

Upon gaining his freedom, Pierre took on the surname of Toussaint, in honor of Toussaint Louverture, a Haitian revolutionary leader who helped transform the fledgling slave rebellion in Haiti into a successful revolutionary movement. Pierre Toussaint continued to work among the elite in New York as a hairdresser and, as his success grew, he began to use his wealth for several philanthropic causes.

In 1811, Toussaint purchased the freedom of Marie-Rose Juliette Noel — now we know her as Servant of God Marie-Rose Juliette Toussaint — and they were married. When Pierre's sister Rosalie died of tuberculosis, they adopted her only daughter, Euphemia, and raised her as their own. Alongside Euphemia, the Toussaints sheltered orphans and fostered numerous New York street children. They purchased a house on Franklin Street where they supported orphaned boys, getting them educations, helping them learn trades, and sometimes even setting them up with their first jobs.

The Toussaints became a charitable tour de force and well known among New Yorkers. They began an employment agency, a credit bureau, and a refuge for traveling priests and immigrants. During the cholera outbreak in New York City Pierre and Juliette would cross quarantine barricades and nurse sick people back to health in their own home. They raised money to build what is now Old St. Patrick's Cathedral on Mulberry Street and helped found the first black Catholic school in New York City — St. Vincent De Paul on Canal Street.

During all of his philanthropic work, Pierre continued to work as a hairdresser and support his family. He died two years after his wife Juliette's passing in 1853, at the age of 87 and was buried alongside her and Euphemia in the cemetery of St. Patrick's Old Cathedral in New York. When the investigation into his life for the cause of sainthood started, Pierre was exhumed and reinterred in the main cathedral. He was the very first layman to be honored by burial in the crypt below the main altar of St. Patrick's, an honor usually reserved for bishops of the Archdiocese of New York. He was declared Venerable by Pope John Paul II in 1996.
